CU Grill To Be Operated By Off-Campus Management

The College Grill will be under new management second semester, it was announced by President Dean McFall at AVC Tuesday night. Mr. John Cocolin, manager of Johnnie's Drive-In Restaurant and the former College Cove, will take over operations of the Grill, which under the management of the College reportedly has been losing money.

Since December the Human Relations Committee of ASG, under the chairmanship of Emily Smith, has been conducting a study of the Grill's operations; ASG requested the study after hearing reports of dissatisfied students. This information will be turned over to Mr. Cocolin for his use in improving service to the students.

Last summer the College spent $9,000 to renovate the Grill. Under Mr. Cocolin's management, students expect a more diversified menu and hours which will better serve them.

Dr. Edwards, Treasurer of the College, stated that Mr. Cocolin has been given a one-semester contract which will be renewed if satisfactory management is provided.

From Reis Library . . .

"Oh, come now," you'll say, "you should be reading this week's sales' ads, and not last month's editorials." But Reis Library did have a Christmas gift that was a real surprise. Goddard Lieberman, President of Columbia Records, sent us sixty long-playing Columbia Masterworks records. Selections range from Bach to Wagner, played by great orchestras under Bernstein, Walter, Ormandy, Mitropoulos and Szell, or such soloists as the Budapest Quartet; Fleischer Casadesus, Serkin, Gould, Haskil and Uninskp; Francescati, Oistrakh and Casals; E. Power Biggs and Albert Schweitzer; and for good measure, songs by Noel Coward and Yves Montand, Greek songs and dances, music of the Takarazuka Dance Theatre, songs of Israel, and the flamenco music of Sabicas.

We want to share them with you, and so each afternoon at four, Monday through Friday, during examinations, the library staff will be hosts to an hour of music in the Craig Room. Daily programs will be announced, and for twelve weeks we will revive the old Craig Room "4:20s" that drew more than 8,000 listeners in the six years we ran them, before the College Union set up its listening rooms. Come to the new "Columbia Hours." Thus we will say Thank You to Mr. Lieberman.

Dr. Pommer Wins $500 From TWA

For a letter describing the scenic and cultural advantages of the northeastern United States, showing Americans' increasing respect for their historical background Dr. Henry Pommer, professor of English has won a $500 prize from Trans-World Airlines.

Dr. Pommer was one of ten recipients throughout the United States awarded $500 prizes by TWA for best letters written to overseas friends encouraging them to visit America. TWA sponsored the contest in conjunction with President Kennedy's "Visit The U.S.A." program. The winning letters were chosen from nearly 4,000 letters sent to 83 countries.

Dr. Pommer cited the above advantages of America in a letter to Mrs. H. Stewart Carter of Cambridge, England. He also expressed the wish to repay the hospitality which he and Mrs. Pommer had received when they visited Cambridge in 1957-58, while Dr. Pommer was on a sabbatical leave. The Rev. Mr. Carter was pastor of the local Cambridge Unitarian Church, whele Dr. Pommer spoke several times.

Students on the Honor Program will be able to take final exams in Montgomery Gym or in Cochran.

Exam permits will not be issued until all all outstanding traffic fines are paid. The Traffic Committee office will be open today until 4:30 to receive payments.

ASG will show the film GIANT Monday evening, January 30. Details will be announced later.

Students enrolled in the Honor Program are reminded of their obligation to the Honor Code during final exams. Students are encouraged to use the unproctored rooms which are scheduled for this purpose during the exam period.

Quigley will be open for studying Saturday and Sunday, January 13-14 and 20-21, from 2:00 to midnight, under the supervision of the Academic Committee. Weekday hours remain the same.

G-course exemption tests will be given on Wednesday, January 31 at 2:30 p.m., in Alden 101.

If you wish to take one of these tests, please register for it in Dean Ross's office by January 20.

Pacifist Position To Be Discussed, Clarified, In Two Day Series Feb. 1, 2

The International Relations Committee of Allegheny's Student Government has planned a two-day program of explanation, clarification, and objection to the position held by pacifists in regard to current national and international issues. Because of the concern of all Americans today regarding the tension in the world situation, and because of the many opposing viewpoints as to a course of action which would most effectively alleviate this tension, the committee felt that many Alleghenians would be interested in becoming further acquainted with one of these prominent viewpoints.

Thursday evening, February 1, Dr. Pommer, Dr. Devor, Dr. Ketcham, and Dr. Hutcheson will present a panel discussion with Dr. Pommer and Dr. Devor taking the pacifist position, and Dr. Ketcham and Dr. Hutcheson presenting several opposing viewpoints.

Mr. Harrop Freeman, Professor of Law at Cornell University, will visit Allegheny's campus on Friday, February 2. He is a well known pacifist who often makes tours to speak on this subject. Students will have a chance to meet both him and his interesting wife informally in the C.U. on Friday afternoon. He will also give a lecture Friday evening. The specific times and places for these events will be posted at a later date.

Allegheny May Appear On TV College Bowl

College Director of Development Robert Sherman said this week that there is a good possibility that Allegheny may be invited to participate in the General Electric College Bowl. Mr. Sherman wrote a letter to the show's producers last spring, and a few weeks ago they replied that Allegheny might be a participant when the Eastern colleges join the program. Schedules indicate that this would be some time this spring.

ASG has been informed of this, and they probably will be in charge of the selection of the four students who would appear on the national TV show should Allegheny be invited to join the program.

Three Named to Attend Fisk In Semester Exchange Program

June Fair, Rick Momeyer, and Peter Schwartz have been named as Allegheny's representatives in the exchange with Fisk University this coming semester. Three students from Fisk, two girls and one man, will be attending Allegheny in this reciprocal agreement.

A subcommittee of the Religious Activities Committee, consisting of Dr. Pommer, chairman, Mr. Zack, Dean McKean, and Dr. Devor, and students Don Coffey and Sherry Westerland selected the three Allegheny students. Although Fisk has been participating in student-for-student exchanges with such schools as Oberlin and Cornell for about ten years, this will be Allegheny's first exchange with this Nashville Negro school.

The students from Fisk who will arrive in time for registration will be welcomed and oriented to Allegheny by a committee headed by Nancy Fahnestock.

Risk Momeyer, one of the Allegheny delegates, said that all the students involved here seemed enthusiastic about the program. He mentioned that both he and June Fair plan to take a sociology course entitled "Minorities in America," while they are at Fisk.

Allegheny Receives $67,200 Grant

MEADVILLE, Pa. — Allegheny College has received notification of a grant of $67,200 from the National Science Foundation for the operation of a 7-week Summer Science Institute for high and preparatory school science teachers, according to an announcement by Dr. Gerald S. Reisner, Allegheny biology professor, who has been named director of the Institute.

Purpose of the grant, the announcement noted, is to "help hard-pressed secondary school teachers keep abreast of the latest developments in science."

The award is comparable to similar ones received every year since the NSF program was inaugurated in 1956. Next summer's Institute will be the seventh conducted by Allegheny College professors.

Allegheny will again offer three-hour credit courses in six areas: astronomy, biology, chemistry, geology, mathematics, and physics. The work will start July 3 and run through August 15. Work may be done in any two of the six subjects being offered Dr. Reisner said. Successful completion of the work carries teacher certification credit and credit toward a master's degree in education.

Teachers accepted for the Institute will receive tuition costs and a stipend of $600, plus $120 for each dependent up to four. Previous NSF Summer Science Institutes at Allegheny have drawn teachers from all over the country.

Application forms and a descriptive folder may be obtained by writing Dr. Gerald S. Reisner, director, National Science Foundation Summer Institute, Allegheny College, Meadville, Pa. Completed forms must be returned by February 15, with notification to successful applicants by March 15.

Letters

An event which I feel deserves the attention of the Allegheny students took place in the Rochester, N.Y. area during the past Christmas vacation. Under the leadership of Lew Fisher, Kay Moss, and Dick Leadley, a group of eleven Allegheny students sponsored a tureen supper in the Leadley's home for applicants to the class of 1966. Several alumni were also invited and, although none attended, I am sure they were favorably impressed.

Following the supper some slides were shown of the campus and a panel discussion of Allegheny life from the students' point of view was presented. All of the some twenty aspirants seemed to enjoy themselves, and I am sure the students present had a good time.

The most beneficial result of the gathering probably came when these high school seniors relayed their impressions of Allegheny, as gained from talking with students presently enrolled, to their peers, and guidance counselors.

An event of this type can be a boost to Allegheny in your community, which is something to consider if you are planning to hang a diploma from here on your wall, and it can be an enjoyable way to spend a vacation evening, too.

Dear Campus Editor:

We as Kappa Alpha Theta Sorority would like to give our group endorsement to the proposed campus radio station.

This decision has been arrived at as a result of group discussion and an interview with Norman Greene as a representative of the A.R.C.

We feel that this project, through its great variety in programming, will stimulate cultural, intellectual, and social growth on campus. Because this station holds the potential for promoting campus unity, we feel that it would serve as a positive good for all concerned.

Allegheny In PAC.

A compilation of the winners of President's Athletic Conference sports championships since the formation of the eight-team group in 1958 finds Allegheny College well out in front in the number of sports in which titles have been won, and with a slim lead in the total number of championship teams.

Gator athletic outfits have taken conference crowns in six sports, two more than either Wayne State University or Case Institute of Technology. Allegheny has registered league wins in football, baseball (twice), wrestling (twice), swimming (three times), soccer, and golf. Wayne State has taken the cross country championship three times, the tennis championship thrice, one baseball title, and fencing twice, plus a share of the 1961 championship with Case.

Case's wins have been in basketball, soccer (three times), and cross country, with a share of last year's fencing trophy. Allegheny does not compete in fencing.

Western Reserve and John Carroll Universities each show up with team winners in three sports. The Redcats have won in football (twice), track (twice), and wrestling. Carroll has been on top in golf (twice), basketball (twice), and football. Bethany has one PAC title in track and field.

Allegheny's total of ten PAC championships is also tops for the league. Wayne has nine and one-half, Case five and one-half, and Western Reserve and John Carroll five each.

Allegheny's record of ten championships in six different sports becomes all the more impressive in the light of the fact that until last spring's track and field victory by Bethany, the Meadville college was the sole Eastern division member to gain a top spot in the eight-team PAC.

Also interesting is the fact that Allegheny has come in in first place in ten of the twenty-six championship meets or league standings in which the college has been represented since the conference was formed

In its first year of membership Allegheny won PAC titles in swimming and wrestling, and finished third behind Wayne State and Case in the "all-sports" competition. Two years ago Allegheny won the all-sports crown, most coveted of the awards, and finished first in soccer, swimming, wrestling, and baseball. Last year Allegheny was second in overall scoring two and one-half points behind Wayne, and three points ahead of Case, with championships in swimming, baseball, and golf.

The football championship this fall, and points picked up in soccer and cross country, has Allegheny in a tie for first place with Case at 12 points, followed by Western Reserve, 10; Bethany, 9½; Wayne State, 9; Thiel, 8½; John Carroll, 7; and Washington and Jefferson, 2 in this year's campaign.
