Harrisonburg, Va.,

October 13, 1922.

Mr. William Fortune,
Indianapolis, Ind.

My dear Mr. Fortune:

I think there is no doubt that I shall be in Louisville by noon of Monday, the 16th, and as I understand it you are planning to be there b the morning of the 17th.

I am looking forward to our trip with great eagerness. I have been having here in this lovely Valley a most interesting time, as I had at Lancaster Sunday and Monday. I go on to Staunton to-day, and leave there Sunday night for Louisville.

I hope you are going to be interested in the Lincolns of the Shenandoah Valley. I assure you that it is a very worth while talo.

Cordially yours,

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library