Send copy of it

September 24, 1923

Dr. J. W. Wayland,
Harrisonburg, Va.

My dear Dr. Wayland:

I was so pleased the other day to receive a copy of your attractive Guide to the Shenandoah Valley. It is as interesting as it can be, and makes me want to start out at once, it in hand, and go from end to end of that beautiful land.

I am still working away on my Footsteps of Lincoln, and shall have a first volume out before snow flies, a copy of which I shall give myself the pleasure of sending you.

Have you seen Waldo Lincoln's History of the Lincoln Family? It is a monumental work and contains the fullest information yet published on the Virginia Lincolns.

If my sister were here she would join me in sending our very best wishes to you and Mrs. Wayland. We often speak of your kindness to us when we were in Harrisonburg.

Sincerely yours,
