CAMPAIGN BY STUDENT BODY MOVING ALONG

MONEY SECURED IN FORM OF FIVE YEARS PLEDGE OR IN CASH

The campaign which Allegheny college students have undertaken to raise a student contribution to the 125th Anniversary Fund is coming along well, according to reports received Sunday night.

Charles Miller, president of the Allegheny Undergraduate Council and head of the student committee in charge of the campaign, stated that approximately $1,000 or about half of the sum set as the goal of the drive has been received so far with another week to go. He stated further that he was fully confident that the desired sum would be raised with little trouble within the next week. The drive closes this Thursday at midnight, the sum of money raised by that time to be placed in the hands of President William P. Tolley Friday noon in chapel

Thus far the majority of the money contributed has come from the freshman class. It is this class, of course, which is most interested in the campaign because they will receive the benefit of it through the new dormi-

INGLEFIELD TO DIRECT NEWLY FORMED BAND

Rehearsals for the newly-formed Allegheny band began last Thursday night, when the first practice session was held in the gymnasium under the direction of Mr. Paul Inglefield, prominent Meadville musical organizer.

The first rehearsal brought out 22 college musicians, consisting mostly of freshmen. A journey to Grove City on Nov. 21, complete with uniforms, has been promised the band providing they show satisfactory improvement. The sponsors, headed by Mr. E. H. Johe, have been quoted to the effect that they will "do anything" to insure the movement's success.

The main obstacle in the past has been lack of practice time, and previous attempts at organization seem to have slowly died out. For this and various other reasons, therefore, Allegheny has never had a good band.

Arrangements have been made to provide instruments for those without them who wish to join the band, and class numbers or other similar insignia will be given to active members.

The administration, together with the athletic committee and the music department, is giving the group every possible support, and President Tolley himself stressed the necessity of a band. Mr. Inglefield, the director, is an experienced leader, having formed and organized many bands, including those of Carnegie Tech and Meadville high school.

The second rehearsal, it was announced, will be held in the gymnasium tomorrow evening.

LIBRARIAN REVEALS YEAR ACTIVITIES

Annnual Report and Book Lists Announced; Many Volumes Donated

Book List Released.

The new book list of Reis Library has also been released. Such palatable bits as Steinbeck's Grapes of Wrath or Rame's Wine of Good Hope have been on everyone's tongue for the past several months. Another new book that should attract much interest is Foster's Doctors, Dollars and Disease. The list by no means contains all the latest books but it serves as a good key for reading. Included in the list is a letter for faculty members.

Annual Report.

Librarian Edith Rowley's annual report concerning last year's activities has been reeased. It reveals that the total library circulation last year was 60,420 volumes. The average reserve reading was 49 books per person. Every day an average of 235 books were used, 447 town people used the library.

15,651 cards were added to the catalogue, making a total of 130,649 pieces in Reis library.

Many volumes have been purchased for the library from gift funds. Gifts during last year amounted to 2,274 volumes. Registrar C. F. Ross's classical collection has been placed in the library of the classical department at Bentley.

Interest in the war question is mirrored in the current library display on American neutrality vs. intervention. The theme is borne out by newspapers, magazines, and the slogan, "Arms Embargo or Cash and Carry."

EDGAR WOOD JUDGED FIRST IN CONTEST

Edgar Wood, '40, representing Phi Delta Theta, carried off first honors in the Extemporaneous speaking contest sponsored by Philo-Franklin last Friday in chapel. The contestants discussed the question: "Why should Allegheny students support the campaign fund?"

Mr. Wood claimed the Delta Sigma Rho cup with his address, "The Theme of Creation." To the winner also went a pledge of ten dollars donated by Philo-Franklin. Arthur Diskin, '42, representing Delta Tau Delta, won second place with the theme, "The Psychology Test," while third place

HONORARY POST FOR BUCKINGHAM

Dr. Guy E. Buckingham, associate professor of psychology and education, has been named an associate research fellow in the Advanced School of Education at Teachers' College, Columbia university, in recognition of his educational research work last year.

This honorary appointment is conferred upon outstanding post-doctoral students and is over the signature of Dr. Paul R. Mort, director of Columbia's Advanced School of Education.

DISCUSSION ON FOREIGN CRISIS HELD OCT. 30

STUDENT BODY AND MEMBERS OF FACULTY TO PARTICIPATE

The Philo-Franklin Union will sponsor on the thirtieth of October a panel discussion on the foreign situation. It will be held in the chapel, with three members of the faculty and two members of the student body participating in the formal discussion, following which the floor will be open to questions from the audience. The following persons will participate in the formal discussion:

Professional Background.

Dr. Giddens, head of the history dept., will speak on the preparations for war, both physically and politically, in England, France, and Germany. He was fortunate in being in London when Prime Minister Nevile Chamberlain spoke to parliament; being a history professor, he naturally was there. Hence he should be able to give some interesting sidelights of the British preparations for war.

Prof. Benjamin of the English dept. will give his impressions of the war activity in Switzerland. Germany, and Holland. He happened to be in one of the German mobilization centers when Germany mobiized, and was in Holland when she mobilized and made her proclamation of neutrality.

Prof. Luvaas, head of the music dept. will speak on the Scandinavian countries' status in the present situation. Living as he did with the Nordic people, Prof. Luvaas will be able to give an accurate account of public opinion in the Scandinavian countries in regard to the present international situation.

Student Speakers.

Bob Oberlin will speak on his experiences in Germany during the crisis. He will tell of the exciting incidents in his flight from Berlin in the last few moments before war was declared.

David Robertson, second student speaker, will discuss some of his experiences in France, also expressing his opinions of French participation in the conflict, based upon his observations gathered while working in a

FACULTY ATTEND REGIONAL STUDY CONFERENCE

A group of five faculty members composed of Professors Anderson, Thomas, Kalfayan, Seely and Dr. Green attended a regional conference of the Cooperative study in general education at Antioch college last weekend.

The gathering was the first of a series of two convening at the Yellow Springs, Ohio, college. The fields represented were: biology and physical sciences, expressing arts literature, general humanities, and modern languages. The groups met on Friday and Saturday.

Allegheny college is entering this study as one of many U. S. colleges as a means of improving the educational set up of the school.

Early in November the second of the series will be held to discuss matters relating to the social sciences, history, and personnel administration.

Any man student interested in technical make-up, plan to notify Pat Von Ostrand sometime this week. Freshman or sophomore preferred as chance for advancement.

Any freshman seen without a dink between Wednesday and Saturday will not be admitted to the Homecoming Dance.

CONCERT SERIES

The college has a limited number of tickets to the series of programs to be presented on the Community Concert program. Admission will be by ticket only. Interested students are urged to apply for tickets next Tuesday from 3 to 5 p. m., at the Registrar's office.

Tryouts for Freshman debate are scheduled for Friday evening from 7 to 9 o'clock in Room 15, Arter Hall. Both sides of the question may be debated.

CAMPUS READY FOR ALUMNI

PLAYSHOP TO BEGIN SEASON ON SATURDAY

Box Office Now Open; "Petticoat Fever" Is New Production

Petticoat Fever by Mark Reed, a non-tropical farce, starts the Playshop season Saturday evening at 9 o'clock. Other performances will be given October 17, 18 and 19 at 8:20 p. m.

All tickets for the homecoming performance will be fifty cents per person. However, no student will be admitted on his activities tickets. Box office is now open for the Saturday evening performance.

Students desiring reservations for next week's productions are asked to call at the lobby of the Playshop in Arter Hall Thursday and Friday from 2 to 5 p. m., and the following week at the same hours. They must have their activities tickets when calling for reservations, and no activities tickets will be honored on the evening of the performances.

Gingenbach Has Lead.

Mary Lou Gingenbach, '40, remembered for her holes in Cradle Song and The Bishop Misbehaves returns to the footlights to play Ethel, the feminine lead. Making her debut in Playshop as Clara, is Patty Ann Green, '42, Helen Litten, '40, again dances to tropical music as Snowbird, and Jean Travis, '42, completes the dance team as Little Seal.

Edgar Wood, '40, continues his Playshop activities after numerous performances as the leading man Dascom Dinsmore, and Charles Liggett, '40, goes thoroughly "English" as Sir James Fenton. Adding a little fur to his Russian characterization in Inspector General. Michael Enserro, '40, turns into an Eskimo as Kimo. Jack Megahan, '40, turns to ministry for his present role as Rev. Shapham, Dave Robertson, '41, returns after his strong performance in The Bishop Misbehaves to play the rugged Captain Landry, and Bernard Dusenberry, '43, enters the folds of the Playshop

LUVAAS ENJOYS EUROPEAN VISIT DURING SUMMER

After an eventful summer spent in the Scandinavian countries, Professor Morten J. Luvaas is back on campus to resume direction of the Singers.

Living with the people of the placid states of Northern Europe, Mr. Luvaas saw how one may live in enjoyment with a quiet life, far removed from the bustle of the American cities.

Although the Scandinavian countries are peaceful, one should not come to the conclusion that they are far behind the times in regards to modern conveniences, as they have a greater number of homes containing electricity than we ourselves, Mr. Luvaas states.

On the Continent.

The course of his trip on the continent was also extended Southward to Germany and France, which countries he visited in May. Beautiful spots they were at this time of year and far from the war in which they are now engaged. He saw only home-loving people and no indications that they were preparing for the struggle now at hand.

One of the most outstanding contrasts Mr. Luvaas saw was in the living costs of the various countries. In France and Germany costs were low, while in Norway and Sweden they were high—even higher than in the United States.

During the summer Mr. Luvaas and his family took a cottage on Sande de Furde, where they hiked, went deep sea fishing, ate their capacity of food, and rested. Here, they received a bird's eye view of the whaling industry. To this port boats came with their catch of whale from all points of the Arctic. It may have well been called: "The Heart of the World's Whaling Industry." Not the season for whales, the group had to be content with watching the factories at work with their supply of whale from last year.

125th Anniversary Theme of Program For Homecoming

Many Events Planned; Freshmen to Scramble For Colored Balloons

The Annual Homecoming festivities will be observed here this week-end with the 125th Anniversary theme adding lustre to the proceedings.

Hundreds of alumni and friends from Pennsylvania, New York, Ohio and adjoining states will convene on the Allegheny campus for the all-day program.

It will be "open house" on the campus throughout the day. The new speech and drama studio in Arter Hall will be open for inspection, an exhibit will be held in the art department headquarters in Ruter hall, a special Homecoming display will be set up in Reis library, music listening hours will be held in the oratory and other special preparations will be made for the entertainment of visitors.

Freshmen to Entertain.

As an added feature to the football game, the freshmen will scramble for multicolored balloons between halves and will spell out "125" to give added emphasis to the anniversary motif.

Highlights of the day include the noon alumni luncheon in Hulings hall, the Allegheny-Oberlin football game at 2 p. m., a tea at Hulings hall following the football contest, the annual Homecoming dinner in Cochran hall and the customary fraternity and sorority dinners at 6 p. m., a program in the Arter Hall Playshop Theatre and the Homecoming Dance in the Gymnasium both scheduled for 9 p. m.

Among the other Saturday events are a meeting of the executive board of the Allegheny college alumni association, an archery exhibition in the morning by women students and a between-the-halves program to be staged

ARTER FIELD SET AS SCENE FOR BONFIRE

Four freshmen and four sophomores will lead the Allegheny cheers this season under the leadership of Edgar Wood, '40, he announced today.

The four freshmen are Jean Swan, Frank Elk, Bernard Dusenburg, and Adalou Randall. Bittner Snead, Ralph Kelley, Betty Ling, and Virginia Kiser are the sophomore members.

The annual Homecoming bonfire will afford this group their first public appearance on Arter field at 8:00 Friday evening. A good attendance is desired.

Friday night, October 6, a pep meeting was held for the freshmen in the chapel in order that cheerleaders might acquaint freshmen with Allegheny's cheers.

An all-college pep meeting is to be held in the chapel tomorrow at noon.

CONCERT GIVEN IN PITTSBURGH BY SINGERS

Friday the Allegheny Singers went to Pittsburgh to sing at an Allegheny dinner given as a part of the Anniversary Fund drive. Former members of the choir who live in Pittsburgh joined the students in providing a musical program of Allegheny songs.

Prof. Luvaas has been trying out the combinations of voices which will make up the Singers. A temporary group has been chosen. Positions in the permanent group and in the chapel choir will be announced later.

Prof. Luvaas has announced the purchase of several new compositions which will be used in the music department this year. Most of them, folk tunes, have been translated from the original language by a former Alleghenian, William Hunter. Everett Hendricks, also ran alumnus, has written the words to one of them, a Christian cantatta called "The Shepherds' Christmas".

Weather Is So Unpredictable--- Thus the Rains Come to Meadville

With all due apologies to Mr. Bromfield it seems as though the rains have come to Meadville. Trench coats, boots, umbrellas, reversibles turned rain outside out, wet feet, sneezing and sniffling—definitely the rains have come.

Probably when this article is printed there will be no sign of rain anywhere. Weather is so fascinatingly unpredictable, is it not? You all remember the dance you started out for on a clear moonlit night—anyhow you unromantically slurped your way home through soupy fog; then there was the time you planned that novel skating party and the ice melted and the whole thing fell through—I mean the party. Then there's the baseball game or picnic that is always being called off on account of rain.

Well that sort of brings up the subject of rain again and since this slightly loony treatise started oout to be a discussion of that peculiar climatic disturbance. I guess we had better stick to the subject now that we have renewed our nodding acquaintance with it again.

In case you haven't noticed it, rains have a curious psychological effect on some people. There is the poor unfortunate soul who, being rather sugary all the time anyway, just melts when it begins to rain, you know, runny rouge and mascara and such, to say nothing of deflated ego. Interesting, too, is the Il Penseroso who loves to walk in the rain and meditate. You know, I do that myself sometimes. Surprising how soothing it can be.

To get back to the subject, there is always the rainbow or the sun or something after a rain that makes you feel so very glad that you are alive which in itself is something.

So until the rains come ggain thanks again for the use of your title, Mr. Bromfield.

SHALL WE HAVE MUSIC?

Last week's issue of "The Campus" contained a story concerning the newly organized student band. At least it is our opinion that the article invited all students who played any instrument to join said organization. However, it would seem that the invitation, if read at all, was grossly misinterpreted. It was not our intention to imply that band membership was limited to freshmen, but evidently only six loyal upperclassmen understood our statements.

When the band sponsors have secured such an able director as Mr. Paul Inglefield, when they have promised to provide instruments for those who need them, when they have agreed to supply uniforms, when they have made arrangements ti award numerals for band participation, and when they have planned to send the group to the annual Grove City,Allegheny fracus, we can see no reason whatsoever for such a poor display of student cooperation.

An integral part of eveay football game is the color and pageantry which a band affords. Up to now, Allegheny's games have been sadly lacking in this respect. Therefore, when we have the opporunity to enrich our athletic events, as well as other colleggiate meetings, with a well organized band, failure to take advantage of it puts all Alleghenians in a bad light.

The players do their part; long ohurs of practice, frequent injuries, and loss of time from scholastic work gain no material reward for them. Therefore, it would seem that a few hours of practice, plus enthusiasm are not too much to ask of those students who are able to offer their services to the band.

Tomorrow markks the close of the student drive for funds which is being conducted under the auspices of the Allegheny Undergradute Council. It is our earnest hope that every Alleghenian has, or will have, by the termination of the campaign, contributed to it. If so, each and every one of us will be able to feel a thrill of pride when the president of the council presents the student contribution to President Tolley on Friday.

The Undergraduate Council deserves our commendation for this, their latest project. The student body and the administration owe a vote of thanks to Charles Miller and his committee for the time and effort expended upon the drive.

WANTED—COOPERATION

Disclosure of plans for an Allegheny Institute of Opinion to concern itself with national, international and local campus issues, finds us in hearty approval.

We have long felt the need for an adequate survey of student opinion, conducted on a business like basis. Although individual campus groups have conducted polls, this is the first attempt to have an organized measurement of what the average Alleghenian thinks about vital questions.

Too frequent is the assertion that college students are too concerned over campus trivialities to be bothered with matters of importance. We challenge the validity of this statement.

We are prepared to back up this challenge with the assertion that the Allegheny Institute of Opinion will prove that college students do give much thought to pertinent topics.

Among college students of today, it is a cognizant fact that they are the generation which must be concerned with world affairs. If the college student, tomorrow's leader, isn't concerned with these topics, what can be said of the future of America?

In these days when public opinion plays so important a part in public affairs, it is important to know the general attitude of various groups on these questions. Increasing are the agencies whereby this public opinion can be formulated and expressed. The Allegheny Institute here offers a direct outlet.

Letters to the Editor

Editors of the Campus

Dear Miss Fay and Miss Kistler:

I do not want The Campus to censor its news but I do think that your latest Sports Trails column should have been a little restricted. If you will notice your columnist was attempting to foster school spirit in behalf of the football team. I do not wish to be quoted as disloyal; quite the contrary, I think his idea was excellent. However, in trying to arouse school spirit it is extremely bad policy to quote the number of games lost in the previous campaign. To make it worse the quotation was wrong. Had time been taken to look into the files of your own paper, it would have been discovered that in 1938 Allegheny did not have a "record of two wins and five defeats" but compiled a record of three wins and four defeats. A sports columnist's should be interested enough in his field to know the facts.

I trust the student body will overlook this error, but as The Campus is an instrument for distributing news to the students, we would like to know that this will not happen again.

THEY DO SAY

By ROBERT SHANE

"What are the opportunities for the United States in the Pan-American situation and what policies should we adopt in view of the present European war?"

Last week a series of Pan-American conferences were held in Panama to discuss the action of this hemisphere in the present conflict.

Again the Monroe Doctrine, South American trade, and imperialism raised their ugly heads as pertinent questions. Allegheny students have the following opinions to present.

BOB ROUNDY, Freshman ecenomics student—"Why should me, just because we are the best equipped nation in the western hemisphere, take it upon ourselves to protect an independent nation or nations, which are in comparison not as well equipped as the United States.

"Didn't most of them fight for and win their independence by their own efforts? If they were able to sever their relations with a so-called "Mother Country" by a will of their own it isn't up to the United Stats to put its "two cents" into a situation that doesn't need or concern them in the least."

MARY BROCK, Junior history major—"The conferences proved that we have the unanimous support of all twenty-one republics in the economic but not the military field; especially since the German and English trade is largely quiescent. These countries must look toward us. Here lies our opportunity to recover heavy trade losses we have encountered in South America."

MONT MacKINNEY, Senior, History and Political Major—"I believe we should take the opportunity extended by the European war to make our relations with other American nations cure a major portion of the business more secure by means of trade agreements. This would permit us to seformerly held by Germany.

"The recent Pan-American conferences were a step in this direction and should be actively pursued by our State department.

"We should strongly enforce the Monroe Doctrine even to the use of force, Canada not excepted."

STUART SCHAFFNER, Sophomore—"It seems to me that, considering the fact that the United States seems determined to protect itself and all the western hemisphere against aggression, close military cooperation between the Pan-American countries could be of advantage, and that, indeed, many benefits. such as those of better protection and a closer cooperation in other fields would accrue."

CHARLES LIGGETT, Senior, English Major—"We should first do all in our power to maintain some normalcy in trade with other nations of this hemisphere. While no isolationist policy for the Americas is feasable, every effort should be made to keep war away from either North or South America. Our interests are not so important, however, that we should go so far as to become involved in hostilities."

POLL TAKEN OF STUDENT OPINION

Announcement was made yesterday that an Allegheny Institute of Opinion will be sponsored this semester by the History and Political Science club in conjunction with The Campus.

Professor Paul H. Giddens, head of the History and Political Science Department, who will serve as director of the Institute, revealed plans for a campus-wide survey of student opinion on international, national and local campus issues. Dr. Giddens will present the plan in chapel, Friday, October 13. The first poll will be taken at the same time. Results will be published in the next edition of The Campus.

BIT BY BIT

BIT'S PHILOSOPHY.

Ethics—American Style: Make righteous rules to show your heart is pure; THEN DO THE DIRTY WORK WHERE IT CAN'T BE SEEN.

SCANDAL BITS.

Helen Schaffner was seen by Bit getting out of a brown Pontiac. When Bit asked her who the fella was, she replied honestly, "I dunno." (Don't get excited. He was wearing a dink like a loyal frosh.)

Barbie Hunt must have fallen hard for a certain blonde Phi Delt recently. Dip, smooch, dip, smooch, etc. It certainly put a scare into Jack Barry when he danced with her (at arms length.)

Did Joyce Schafmeister think she could fool the public with those dark glasses? Who's she hiding from—Morrey??

We're showering daisies once again. This week it's to Adele Horner and Ed Doolittle. Nice goin'.

We're wondering if Nancy Martin and Harry McCurdy ought to be included in the above. Who can tell?

We can hardly wait to send daisies to Travis and Maloney. It's just a matter of time.

"Never-miss-a-week-end" Hoagland kept his record of attendance by popping in on the Theta party last Saturday to the surprise of all concerned.

Johann, ex-'40, has returned for the Homecoming festivities, and is now frequenting his old haunts in Caflisch Hall.

The Phi Psi's have started the year off with a bang—meaning the false alarm fire alarm. Tish, tish, boys, running out on the porch in broad daylight in your P. J.'s!

What was Eddie Robinson doing on Hoolings third front Sunday night? We wonder, too.

Was Baron Arentzen shocked when he asked Phyl Black to go to Jim's and found she had a date (Ben "Steady" Fauver) standing beside her!

About the recent Hill-Caldwell affair all Rickey has to say is, "I know she loves me, but she just wants to get around a little bit." So-o-o-o-o.

It seems that a couple of the Phi Gam alumni (Paul Johnston and Chuck Barclay, to be specific) took their girls (Barb Lawson and Rusty Megahan, to be still more specific) to look at houses recently. Wonder what they have in mind?

Suggestion to Jean Risser: why aren't you a little more careful what you do with the letters your fella from home sends you? Two choice bits were found 'round the old diamond. Hmmmmmm!

It's rumored that last Saturday two Hulingsites were considering switching corsages. That's gratitude for ya.

Bit heard tell that Kip Miller and Libby Gotschall had a bit of a pin-hanging session at the Kappa party. Daisies, daisies, and more daisies!

A bit of a slam,
A bit of a pun,
But don't get mad,
It's all in fun.

-:- CLUBS -:-

SPANISH

Los Camaines, the Spanish club, will begin activities for the year Tuesday, October 17.

This year all of the meetings will center around a main theme—Mexico. Each meeting will concern a different phase of this central topic. Songs, customs, and games are a few of the subjects to be used for the monthly meetings.

Jean Beighley, '40, is president, Patricia Van Ostrand, '41, is vice-president, Ruth Jarvis, '41, is treasurer, and Michelena Kobylanski, '41, is secretary.

GERMAN

The German Club, popular Allegheny organization, will continue its meetings on the third Tuesday of each month in the recreation room of Hulings hall. All students who have completed a year of German are invited to join.

Although conversation will not be in German, German songs will be sung and games played. Refreshments are to be served at every meeting.

The executive committee of the History and Political club will comprise the personnel of the Institute. The committee includes Dr. Paul Cares, instructor of history, Mont MacKinney, '40, president of the club, Robert Oberlin, '41, vice-president, Jean English, '40, secretary-treasurer, and two members-at-large, John Megahan, '40, and Betty Buchanan, '40.

Gridders Tie Haverford

AS GREEK MEETS GREEK

By ART DISKIN

First victim in the touch football blitzkreig is the Delta Tau Delta squad. Beaten first by the Phi Delts, the sheltered ones ran into a Mack truck by the name of Phi Gamma Delta last week-end. This encounter ended in a 36-0 Fiji triumph.

Under the intramural regulations a team is eliminated after it has lost two games, therefore D.T.U.'s touch football career is over for the season.

Messrs. Bruce Harper, Rajah Flint, and Dick Nichols contributed to the Delt's plight by heaving the pig all over Crawford County. At the end of the first half the score stood at 24-0, but the Delts tightened up their defenses and played "cozy ball" during the second spasm, holding the Fijis to two more touchdowns.

Bill Lavely, Steve Horton, Don King and George Carlisle stood out in the Delt defense.

Freakish was the work for the weather Sunday night when the 'Gators returned from Haverford. The deluge nearly spoiled the fun for the milling mobs of ardent classmates on hand at the depot ready to give three or four rousing cheers as the heroes dragged themselves out of the train. Just as the train pulled in the rains came. For just ten minutes it poured while the team left in waiting busses; however, the bedraggled enthusiasts, dampened in body but not in loyalty, showed real spirit, nevertheless.

In contrast to the Delt-Fiji debacle, a close game was fought out last week between the Phi Delts and Chi Rhos. The final score was 18-12, in favor of the former, but it was closely fought. The passing combine of Klein and Faloon clinched matters for the Phi Delts late in the last quarter, after the score had remained at 12-12 for two periods.

Beta Kappa has done it! There will have been a game between the Phi Psis and the B.K.'s by the time this item appears.

The Beta's didn't show up for their originally scheduled game with the Phi Psis so they were charged with a forfeit, but they have shown some real interest and have gathered up enough men for a team.

The only other game this week is the Sig-Phi Psi match on Wednesday. This was planned for Tuesday, but since Beta Kappa gets a chance at the Phi Psis it was postponed one day.

BOOTERS WIN SLIPPERY ROCK OPENER, 3-2

Stunder's Goal in Last Period Climaxes Allegheny Rally

The 1939 edition of the Allegheny soccer team got off to a flying start last Friday when they licked Slippery Rock 3-2. It was the first time in six years that Allegheny has won its opener.

The team, composed mostly of inexperienced players came from behind to win. From the very first play of the game when Chillmer of Slippery Rock booted the ball between the uprights without an Allegheny man touching the ball, the 'Gators had an uphill fight on their hands.

It was a close fought contest all the way. From the time of that disasterus first goal until the last period when Bill Stunder of the 'Gators booted the winning goal, the issue was always in doubt.

Allegheny tied the score in the first period when, after dribbling beautifully from the 40 yard line thru the entire Slippery Rock defense, Merry George booted a goal. Bunney gave Slippery R ck a 2-1 lead just before the half ended.

In the third period Jimmy Baldwin scored from a scrimmage 10 yards out to again tie the score. Stunder's winning goal was made in the same way.

With the opener under their belt, Allegheny has bright prospects for a very successful season.

Doncaster, who looks and acts like an outstanding soccer player, played a whale of a defense game. The seven others who made their first varsity appearance showed definite promise.

Allegheny faces Carnegie Tech this Friday in what promises to be a tough contest. All contests between the schools have been close. Two years ago we won 1-0 but last year the score was reversed in favor of Tech.

Our archery tournament seems to have a hard time getting started. Just as soon as the new targets come the competition will begin. You had better get your point of aim. Remember—the best man always wins.

The tennis chart shows lots of empty brackets. Games must be played promptly as the tournament must end soon. Meet your opponent at the courts and show her how tennis really should be played.

Peg McDowell presiding at the Boots and Saddle meeting this week. It was decided that the club would take in new members this fall if the weather permits. There will be a Gymkhana this fall, so you had better get your canter down smooth.

Beginning October 10, alternating Tuesdays are co-ed nights in the pool. What an idea for a Tuesday evening date! If your favorite bathing suit is not woolen you may even forget about the tank suits. Why not splash out some fun with or without a date on Tuesday evenings from 7:30 until 9 o'clock.

Last Saturday about twenty Alleghenians had the usual good time at Bousson. From all reports the snipe hunt was much fun. This coming week-end the farm will welcome all alumnae Outing club members.

FROSH FOOTBALL TEAM FACES THREE GAME SCHEDULE

The Allegheny Freshman football team, whose numbers have been cut recently from 47 to 28, will face a schedule of three games this season, Coach Brickley announced Monday.

The opener will be at Slippery Rock, a new game on the Freshman schedule, and will probably be played October 23, though no definite date has been set. Games to follow will be at Grove City on November 6 and with Polish Alliance at Montgomery field on November 10.

Coach Brickley's squad is bigger, more experienced, and more talented than an Allegheny freshman team has been in years. Forty-seven candidates a record number, answered the initial call. These were too many for Brickley and his assistant, Al White, to handle, so the squad was cut down in order to better develop the outstanding players.

Today the Frosh will scrimmage for the first time with the Varsity. Then such promising prospects as Brokas, Hock, Henry, and Troop at the ends; Dobken, Owen, Roeder, Lavely, and Britton at the tackles; August, Powell, and Statler at the guards; Canlon, Chapman, and Hoyt at center; and Cramer, Hall, Pierce, Carie, and Rittenburg in the backfield. Among those are August and Chapman who have received all-league recognition in their conferences.

SEVEN SURVIVE IN FACULTY CUP TENNIS TOURNEY

The faculty cup tourney, scheduled to end last Sunday, has been extended a week, Coach J. C. Fisher announced. All the matches with one exception have progressed at least as far as the quarter final round. Caravacci and McEwen have reached the semi-finals.

Art Gratz, last year's runner-up has breezed through both of his matches and looks like the man to beat this year. Other survivors are Topper, '40, Blank, '42, McEwen, '41, and Caravacci, '42. The match between Burrows, '42, and Larson, '43, will decide the other quarter finalists.

The tourney which this year had the largest entry in its history, has been so far marked by one sided victories. Only one match, that between Fauver and Caravacci has gone into extra sets. In that match Caravacci, after losing the first set badly, swept through the last two to win 1-6, 6-2, 6-2.

SCHEDULE SIX PEP MEETINGS FOR THIS WEEK

There will be pep meetings throughout the week in preparation for the big homecoming game with Oberlin Saturday, Cheer Leader Virginia Kiser, '42, announced oMnday.

After leading cheers in the Cochran dining hall last night, the group of nine cheer leaders headed by Edgar Wood, '40, move to Hulings hall dining room for a pep session tonight.

Thursday we will have more cheering atnoon in the chapel, and that evening there will be a big all-college pep meeting in front of Cochran.

After Doctor Tolley's part of the program in chapel Friday, there will be a short cheering practice.

HARTWELL SCORES ALL 'GATOR POINTS IN 13-13 TIE

The Allegheny College Gridders, utilizing periodic spurts of power, emerged with a 13-13 tie from Saturday's battle with Haverford. Our gridders, although somewhat outplayed, were never outfought, and on their return home Sunday night, the attitude was one of general optimism and enthusiam.

This optimism should do our boys a lot of good, as they have a tough job on their hands this Saturday in their Homecoming game with Oberlin. Oberlin, a husky team with a line average of 184 pounds, was impressive last Saturday when they whipped Rochester 12-0. General rumor has it that one of the best teams Oberlin has ever produced will perform on Montgomery Field Saturday.

Last Saturady a crowd of 4,000 sat in the hot sun and watched George "Alfy" Hartwell score all the points for the surprisingly potent 'Gator offence. Certainly Haverford did not expect such a show of power from a team which they easily defeated last year, 28-0.

Allegheny opened the scoring in the first quarter. McKnight stopped an early Haverford threat when he recovered a fumble on his own 31. Two plays later Hartwell twisted through a hole at left tackle and, behind beautiful blocking, raced 64 yards to a touchdown. He converted to give the 'Gators a 7-0 lead. The Main-Liners retaliated with a 75-yard counter-offensive which ended in paydirt, and they tied the score by making good their conversion.

The 'Gators took the lead shortly before the half ended. A pass from Cook to Hartwell, one of the three they completed all afternoon, connected on the 36 and "Alfy" raced to the 19 before being hit. He was hit so hard that he fumbled and Haverford recovered. But two plays later Barrett pounced on a Main-Liner fumble, and it was Allegheny's ball on the 11. Cook tossed a short pass to Hartwell for the score and the 'Gators led 13-7 at the half.

Coach Lawrence's men might have won if there hadn't been a gentleman by the name of Dick Beeler in the Haverford lineup. With the 'Gators leading 13-7 in the final quarter Beeler sparked a 60-yard offensive of laterals and trick reversed which tied the score. Fortunately, the Allegheny forward wall rushed Beeler's attempted conversion, and the kick went wide.

In the closing minutes Allegheny drove valiently 76 yards to the Haverford 14 only to be stopped by the final whistle. That was the only important drive of the second half for the 'Gators. They were kept on the defensive most of the time by the Main-Liners' razzle-dazzle offensive. In the third quarter Coach Lawrence's men had to make a gallant goal line stand on the one-yard-line to avert a score.

The Oberlin game should be a close, hard-fought affair. Allegheny has shown that it has an offense, and, although the middle of the line showed weakness Saturday, it should improve with a week more of practice.

SOCIETY

By JOYCE SCHAFMEISTER

Betty Co-ed stepped into the spotlight this week-end and stole honors by throwing the three big parties.

Kappa Alpha Theta.

The pledges of Kappa Alpha Theta were feted Saturday night at the Phi Delta Theta house, where Phil King and his orchestra played for their pledge dance.

The programs, replicas of the Theta pledge pins, announced that Miss Ann Pomeroy and Mr. J. L. Fisher were chaperones. Guests of the chapter were Professor and Mrs. L. J. Long.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Kappa Kappa Gamma pledges were "behind the eight ball" Saturday evening, or so the programs implied at the dance given in their honor at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon House.

The Towne Club furnished the musical background for the dance, and Dr. and Mrs. C. W. Skinner and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Younger were chaperones.

Elizabeth Gotschall, '39, and Virginia Cavanaugh, ex-'41, were guests.

Theta Upsilon.

Theta Upsilon actives and pledges danced at the Riverside on Saturday night to the rhythms of Don Ricardo's band. Professor and Mrs. McClean and Mr. and Mrs. O. Kistner chaperoned, and Betty Boltz, '39, was a guest. Theiir programs, red and white checkered gingham, were decorated with black scottie dogs in silhouette.

Alpha Gamma Delta.

The Reverend Glenn Crawford, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church, Meadville, talked to members of Alpha Gamma Delta Monday night, choosing as his subject mental, physical, and spiritual posture.

Combining a weiner and marshmallow roast, twenty-six Alpha Gams and their dates, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Knorr, met in the Stone Quarry Wednesday night.

Active members of Alpha Gamma Delta were awakened at 6 on Sunday morning by their pledges and taken to Arboratum Park for breakfast. In keeping with the spirit of the thing, the "actives" were forced to don dinks.

Phi Delta Theta.

Using as their theme the coming election, Phi Delta Theta carried on active campaigning with slogans, torch lights, and an election booth for active voting at their Friday evening radio party. Professor and Mrs. Louis J. Long were chaperones.

Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Schneck, Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Falloon, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. McVey and Mr. and Mrs. L. R. Miller were guests at dinner Sunday noon. Joe Philippbar, '38, was a week-end guest.

Phi Kappa Psi.

Phi Kappa Psi had as dinner guests Mr. and Mrs. Ben Miller on Tuesday, Dr. and Mrs. Stoee on Thursday, and Professor Phillip M. Benjamin and Dr. Oliver Turner, '32, on Friday.

Sigma Alpma Epsilon.

Al Hoagland, '39, Bob Graft, '39, Herbert Koerner, '39, and Henbert Mallick, ex-'41, were guests on Sunday noon for dinner at the Sigma Alpha Epsilon house.

Sigma Alpha Epsilon announces the initiation of William Hoover, '42, and George Hartwell, '41, on Sunday evening.

Delta Tau Delta.

Alpha Chi Omega.

Following their weekly meeting, Monday evening, Alpha Chi Omega entertained the pledges and actives of Kappa Kappa Gamma, in the sorority rooms with a "talker" and sing. Committee in charge of the evening was Jean English, '40, and Alice David, '41.

Alpha Chi Rho.

Edgar Wood Wins Speaking Contest

went to Blaine Detrick, '42, of Alpha Chi Rho, whose speech was entitled, "In What Way is a Scientist Like a Criminal?"

This year the tradition of division and sub-division subjects was broken and the same subject was given to all the speakers. Judges for the contest were Miss Mildred Ludwig, Dean J. R. Schultz, and Mr. Joseph Fisher.

The other four speakers, together with their themes, are as follows: Stuart Schaffner, '42, Phi Gamma Delta, "What Man Be There Among You Who, if His Son Asks of Him Bread, Gives Him Stone?"; Bernard Stone, '42, Beta Kappa, "Only We Are Getting the Benefits of the Drive!"; Russell Sipe, '42, Phi Kappa Psi, "The Partial Payment of a Debt Which Can Never Be Paid in Full"; and William McEwan, '41, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, "Allegheny—Past and Present."

NEW SYSTEM IN BOOK STORE

A new system to facilitate better and quicker service has been installed in the College book store this year. This is a "no-cash" plan. A bill is given with all purchases and is to be paid only at the Treasurer's office, thus eliminating all money transactions at the book store.

Another feature which has been added is that books may be secured at any time from any publishing company. This should be of tremendous value to the entire student body for it means that any book, whether in stock or not, may be had in a very few days by making the desire known at the book store. Included in this series are stories, plays, and poetry. Examples of the books included within the edition are: Elizabeth Barett Browning's "Sonnets from the Portuguese", Gilbert and Sullivan's "Operas", "Candide" by Voltaire and "Shropshire Lad" by A. E. Housmon.

As in other years the book store has in its stock a variety of athletic equipment, stationery, pennants, pens, pencils, ink, and all other supplies.

Dr. Louis J. Long is the faculty advisor. Robert Appleyard, Robert Sherman, and Detrick Johnson are the assistants. The hours of the book store are 10:00 a. m. to 12:00 a. m. and 1:30 p. m. to 3:00 p. m.

A Friday afternoon soccer game between Allegheny and Carnegie Tech on Montgomery field also is listed in the Homecoming events. The week-end observance closes Sunday morning with an Allegheny service in Stone Methodist church.

French munition factory. He was in London during the greater part of the period of tension before the war.

The Philo-Franklin Union, in presenting this program, hopes that the public will show an active interest in the open floor discussion following the formal presentation. The participants will be very glad to receive questions which they are qualified to discuss, and which are interesting to the audience as a whole.

CANDLE-LIGHT SERVICE HELD

A candle light service in the chapel marked the second A.C.C. Vesper Service on Sunday.

Musical selections were played on the piano by Helen Crawford, '40. Rachel Mumbulo, '40, gave the invocation and prayer.

Muriel Matson, '42, spoke about "Life and Its Aims." Life was symbolized in a blazing campfire with the sparks that dropped low and went out as those of dishonesty and unfriendlyness.

The next vespers will be presented this Sunday at 4:45 in the oratory. James Gettamy, '41, will speak on the life of Albert Swertzer, famous interpreter of Bach. A listening period of the recordings of Bach as interpreted by Swertzer will be held from 4:15 until vesper service.
