MISS MARGARET NASON
OLD STAGE ROAD
MEDFORD, OREGON

January 21st.

My dear Miss Tarbell,-

I wonder if you remember lecturing in Kalispell, Montana, one evening quite a number of years ago, and the next day, which was Sunday, having supper with two women on their ranch some five miles from town. The next year when Mother and I were in New York you invited us to lunch, and you introduced us to Nida Roebuck, with whom I studied all winter.

For several years after that I received rather frequent letters from Miss Roebuck, the last one from Spain. And since I have heard nothing for two or three years,

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944. Allegheny College Pelletier Library

I am wondering if you will tell me what has become of her. I count it one of the things for which I am most grateful that I knew her, and to me she is one of the most wonderful, as well as for the most interesting person, I have ever known.

I know you are a very busy person, but perhaps your secretary can tell me of Miss Rawlins. In her last letter she was looking forward with so much pleasure to Italy - I hope it came up to her anticipation.

Thanking you, I am -

Sincerely yours

Margaret Mason -

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library