TRACK MEN DO GOOD WORK AT PITTSBURGH

"Chuck" Dotterrer Breaks Another College Record.

The six Allegheny track representatives who went to Pittsburgh on last Saturday afternoon to participate in the annual intercollegiate meet held under the auspices of the University of Pittsburgh not only took a fourth place but broke several records as well. Those who made the trip were Captain C. M. Dotterrer, '14, Fahr, '15, Wells, '14, Long, '15, Drake, '17, and Ellis, '17. Allegheny amassed a total of 18½ points, being defeated by State, Pitt and Carnegie Tech.

The weather was ideal for such a meet as this. The fact that sixteen collegiate records were broken speaks well for the showing Allegheny made against these schools. Among the sixteen records broken Captain Dotterrer fully took care of Allegheny's share. The Gold and Blue captain hurled the discus for the distance of 127 feet 3 inches, a heave which will no doubt stand for some time to come in Western Pennsylvania track circles. Dotterrer also made a new record in the shot by putting it a distance of 42 feet 1 inch. These two first places gave Allegheny its majority of points. Wells in the pole vault tied with Wright of Tech for second place. In order to accomplish this feat Wells went over the bar at a distance of 11 feet 3 inches, which also bettered his former record. In the hurdles both Fahr and Long ran in hard luck. In the high hurdles Fahr took a trid place running against Hammett of State, but was disqualified for knocking down too many of the hurdles. In the low hurdles Fahr took a third place run-Long ran against the fastest men in the trial heats and did not get in the finals.

In the half mile Ellis ran a fine race and finished about sixth in a large field of runners. Drake also made a good showing in the quarter mile. After being knocked down and spiked by several rival runners, the Allegheny sprinter regained his stride and overtook six men, finishing in sixth place. The coach was very well satisfied with the showing made by the Gold and Blue, especially when the fact is taken into consideration that at this meet records were broken in the quarter, half and mile runs and in the discus, hammer, high jump, broad jump, shot and polevault. Allegheny also had the honor of beating out W. and J., Westminster and several other old rivals. The events follow:

100-yard dash won by Hemmann, Tech; second—White, State; third—M. Marshall, Pitt; fourth—Buckley, Westminster; fifth—Rosenthal, Pitt. Time, 10 2-5.

120-yard hurdles won by Scott, Pitt; second—Grown, Penn State; third—Whiting, Penn State; fourth and fifth men disqualified. Time, 15 3-5 seconds.

Time 25 seconds. 220-yard dash won by White, State; second—Rosenthal, Pitt; third—J. Marshall, Pitt; fourth—Hemmann, Tech; fifth—Dolbin, State. Time 22 4 5 seconds.

GOOD LECTURE TO BE GIVEN TONIGHT

Dr. Crawford Will Lecture About the Reformer, Savonarola.

This evening at eight o'clock in the Stone Church, Dr. Crawford will give his Savonarola lecture for the benefit of the summer conference funds of the two Christian organizations. The lecture is under the direction of the Young Men's Bible Class of the Stone church, of which Frank P. Miller, '07, is teacher.

This is a distinctively Allegheny lecture in that it is one of Dr. Crawford's specialities as a study and one of his most valuable and best known works on the lecture platform. He has made several trips to Italy where he has devoted a great deal of time to the detailed study of the work of the famous fifteenth century reformer and his reforms. As a result of this study Dr. Crawford has become an authority on the subject and is recognized through the country as such. This is the first time within this college generation that this lecture has been given, so that it will be wholly new to all, and in connection with the studies of the Renaissance Course in the History department will be of especial value as a supplemental study.

The lecture is being given under special agreement by Dr. Crawford as a means of increasing the funds for sending representatives from the Allegheny Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. to the summer conference of college Christian organizations at Eaglesmere, next June. This conference is made up of representatives from nearly all the colleges in Pennsylvania and is held annually to afford an opportunity for Christian student leaders to meet together for a week's course of study.

PITTSBURGH MAN WINS ORATORICAL CONTEST

Broido Takes First Place, Alexander, of Wooster, Second.

Seldom, indeed, does the student body of Allegheny have such an opportunity to hear oratory of the highest order as was theirs last Tuesday evening when the fourth annual contest of the Civic Oratorical League was held in Ford Memorial Chapel. Three states—New York, Ohio and Pennsylvania—were represented and from these three states there were five colleges competing. At the last minute it was found that Ohio Wesleyan's man, Glenn R. Phillips, through some very unfortunate misunderstanding as to date of the contest had failed to put in his appearance and it was necessary to go on with the program with but four instead of five contestants.

Dr. Cobern as chairman of the evening introduced the speakers and was very careful not to mention along with the name of the speaker the name of the school which he represented in order that there might be nothing to prejudice the judges in the slightest way.

The first speaker of the evening was Morris J. Hindu, Colgate's representative, who had as his subject, "The Land of Terror." His oration was a powerful plea for liberty and freedom in Russia. He showed in a very graphic way the awful plight of Russia at the present time, the terrible condition of the peasants, the tyrrany of the ruling class, and the criminality of the people, attributing all of these evils to the attempt of one man to rule supreme over a nation totaling 150,000,000 in population by means of his power in the schools, the church and the army. His fine oration ended with a passionate plea that some day Russia may rise in her might, shake off the manacles of her oppressor, and enter upon a new life with freedom for all.

Allegheny's man, P. H. Nichols, followed with his oration on "Our Flag on the Bosporus." This was the same oration by which he won the Wakefield Contest here some time ago. It dealt with the untiring efforts of Cyrus Hamlin, a native of Maine and a graduate of Bowdoin, to build the college on the Bosporus in Turkey—the only Christian institution of learning in all that land. He told of his long struggle of seven years to do this Christian work, of his final success over the obstacles set up by the Turkish government, and of the founding of the college with the aid of Christopher Robert for whom the school is now called Robert College. He then showed how for forty years the spirit of our leaven has been permeating the East with the result that in the recent Balkan wars which resulted in such radical changes in that part of Europe the various Christian states were able to find worthy leaders for their noble cause from the students of this college. Mr. Nichols' handling of this theme was remarkable. The greatest credit is due him for both his excellent oration and the fine way in which he delivered it.

Louis Broido, of Pittsburgh, was the third orator. Mr. Broido has been seen before by Allegheny as he was one of the team which defeated the Gold and Blue in debate a short time ago. Mr. Broido spoke on "International Honor and Peace" and treated his subject in an exceptionally fine manner and by reason of the excellence of his oration as well as of his delivery was acclaimed the winner. Mr. Broido traced the growth of the peace movement through the ages until now most of the nations are ready to arbitrate all matters pertaining to differences which may arise in their dealings with other nations. All that is needed, he said, was the support of some one of the greater powers of the world as England, Germany, France, or the United States to bring about universal peace. The only reservation that the United States makes in going into such an arrangement is

ADVANCE OF LIT

Last Issue for This Staff—Many Good Stories.

The May number of the Literary Monthly, the last one for the school year, and the last number to appear from the hands of the present editorial board, will be published this week. It will be an unusually interesting number for several reasons, including as it does a number of the best productions of short stories from the advanced Prose Fiction course, English VIII.

The opening number is called "The Underground Railway in Meadville," and is written by Donald G. Dunbar, '15. This is a very interesting account of the part Meadville played in the escape of slaves from the United States to Canada in the time of the Civil War. The material was secured from Aunt Jane Kennedy, a resident of Meadville at the time of the story and at present an inmate of the Old Ladies' Home.

The second article is a story by Miss Lucille Lippitt, '15, entitled "The Pied Piper of Vendome." This is a very clever production, one of the best of those writtten in the English course, picturing the experience of two small children of Vendome, in southern France, who enlisted in the Children's Crusade. The vividness of the pictures, the fresh dialogue, and the unusual interest of plot makes the story extremely readable.

Following this is another story, called "John Three Sixteen," by Miss Helen Thomas, '14. This story deals with an entirely different subject, being the experience of a convict during a year's imprisonment at Sing Sing, and later at the prison farm, as told by the prisoner in a story before the log fire at the farm. Miss Thomas has made a study of prison conditions and especially of the new system of reform farms, and has woven into her story with cleverness, not only the atmosphere of the prison and the outdoor life of the great farm, but also several actual facts in connection with this great modern problem which will be valuable in more than an interesting way.

The next story is a clever account of the experiences of a young conservatory student on the concert road. It is called "The Light That Failed," by William A. Ellis, '16. The story tells of a young girl with a beautiful voice who chose conservatory life with the prospect of fame and a life before the public rather than a home life and motherhood. The experiences of the young girl with the concert quartette and her gradual change of mind is told in an unusual and interesting way.

The last story is by Miss Alice Chapin, '14, and is called "Glykeia of Athens." It pictures the private life of Athens at the beginning of the decline of the culture and power of Greece, and gives an extremely realistic atmosphere of the period of the story. The word pictures are unusual and the portrayal of character, the dignity and self command of the noble Greek lady, Glykeia, in the presence of danger and humiliation is admirably depicted.

There is a fresh and bright alumni letter from Warren Ford Wilcox, '04. The Potpourri department is of the same general type of witty and clever productions, mostly anonymous.

The farewell editorials are in the nature of suggestions or expositions on some important phases of college life which bear closely on what most vitally pertains to the student body itself.

This is the biggest number of the Literary Monthly of the present school year having an extra number of stories and being decorated by a special commencement cover, designed by E. W. Hickman, '16.

There was a meeting of the Thoburn Club in Cochran Hall last Thursday evening at which time Dr. Williamson, of the Stone Church, spoke about a number of things of interest to members of the club, dealing with various phases of preparation for the ministry.

ERRORS RESPONSIBLE FOR ANOTHER DEFEAT

Brookmire Pitches Well But Has Very Poor Support.

In what was described by many as a "Comedy of Errors," Allegheny went down before the University of Pittsburgh in base ball last Saturday by a score of 9-4. Beyond question the brand of baseball put up by the home team was the worst seen on Montgomery Field for considerable time. In but two departments was the playing of the Gold and Blue up to the standard, namely, batting and pitching. Allegheny hit the ball hard and garnered 14 hits from Riehl, the opposing pitcher, but from this large number of hits were able to manufacture but four runs. Brookmire pitched a good game, giving but two bases on balls and striking out seven. Although the score shows twelve hits as being made off his delivery, nevertheless it is only fair to him to say that there should have been no more than six as at least six hits came after the side should have been retired. In fielding the home team was woefully weak. Eight errors are marked against the Gold and Blue and were it not for the great generosity of the scorer, that number would be increased. Also in team work and in base-running Allegheny showed up poorly in comparison with their more skilled opponents.

For Allegheny Captain Robinson, Richards and Brookmire played the best games. Each of these three scored two hits and no one of them is charged with an error. Mellon made his first appearance on the 'varsity and showed up well. He is credited with seven put-outs, one assist, no errors and one hit out of his three times at bat.

Pitt played all around Allegheny except in the matters of pitching and batting as has been already stated. Their fielding was of the finest variety and their team work was beautiful. But one error is charged against them and at all times they worked together with great precision and accuracy. Their base-running was especially good and many times by their speed and boldness they stretched their hits for extra bases. Englehart, Beatty and Peck were particularly clever with their bats and each of them got two hits. Dillon by good base-running was able to stretch a triple into a homer.

The score by innings follows:

First Inning

Englehart, the first man up for Pitt, singled through short and stole second. Beatty tried to advance him with a bunt on his third strike but the ball rolled foul and he was out. Dillon hit a hot liner to Emery at second who completed an unassisted double play by catching the ball and stepping on the bag for the third out. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Allegheny's half produced one run. Richard flied out to Englehart in center. Robinson tripled to the left field fence and was scored by Campman's single to right. He promptly stole second but died there as Bash made the third out by fanning. One run, two hits, no errors.

Second Inning

Pittsburgh—Healy singled to right and advanced to second on Brookmire's balk. Peck was struck out and Morrow was retired on a long fly to Richards. Hayes got a walk but Austin rolled out to Campman retiring the side. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Allegheny—Emery and Shenefelt went out on flies to Dillon and Peck. Mellon hit safely to right but was out trying to steal. No runs, one hit, no errors.

Third Inning.

Pittsburgh—Riehl singled to right and took second when Gilbert overthrew first in an attempt to catch him. He came home on Englehart's double to right. Englehart stole third and scored on Beatty's sacrifice to Richards. Dillon was safe at first on Emery's error and took second when Baseball vs. Track.

Anyone who examines the results of the last two baseball seasons can not help but wonder if the game is a success at Allegheny. And this does not merely refer to the matter of defeat for that in itself is of secondary importance. It is the question of interest on the part of the students and of the financial outcome. In fact it resolves itself into the question, of whether or not baseball is really a college game. It can scarcely be expected that the town people will come to watch a college game replete with errors and poor plays when there are numerous opportunities to watch professional men play. And without the support of the town friends the financial problem becomes a difficult one.

And there is another side to the matter where it appears that manifest injustice is being done. Many of the track men have worked far longer and harder than the baseball players but they are given but one real meet. And track is certainly a sport that should be called distinctively a college activity. By the interscholastic meet an attempt is made to interest high school men in Allegheny College. But does it not appear rather hypocritical to make so much display for the prospective student and then disregard the undergraduate? If the baseball team is using the funds that might be appropriated for the track team, it will be necessary for it to present a stronger argument that it has in the past or to admit that injustice is being done.

Moving-Up Day.

With the approach of Moving-Up Day there are arising many speculations as to the probable success of this important college event. During the past two years the interest in this day has been decreasing and consequently the parade and other features have become constantly poorer. But this is too unique an event to permit it to pass out of the long list of Allegheny customs and traditions. Now is the time when every fertile brain in the under classes should be at work in preparation of the most novel stunt that ever appeared in a Moving-Up Day parade. Every class and every organization should feel a responsibility for the success of the day. The spirit which one of last year's speakers so well expressed in his famous speech on "Corporation" should pervade the entire college body.

TENNIS MEET.

This afternoon the tennis team will cross rackets in a dual meet with Grove City. This will be the second dual meet in which the home team has taken part. It will be recalled that about two weeks ago Ohio Wesleyan was met on their own grounds and defeated, six matches to one. On the same trip Dennison was to have been played but the rainy weather interfered.

The same team that went on the Ohio trip will meet Grove City this afternoon. The team will be composed of Cox, Bright and the Brownell brothers. Cox, as champion this year in singles, will meet the best that Grove City can put up and in doubles the Brownells will meet their opponents' best pair, since so far they have been able to retain their laurels as champions in doubles. In all, six matches will be played. Each man on the four man team will play one match of singles and then will take a partner and play one match of doubles.

Not much is known of the strength of the Grove City team. Last Saturday their four-man team was defeated at Pittsburgh by Carnegie Tech and they were able to win but two of the six matches played. Of the four there is only one man who is a veteran—Green. The other three men—Byers, McCamey and Durstan—are new men.

It has been arranged that most of the matches be played on the Phi Psi court. The matches that are not played there, will be played on one or another of the fraternity courts as those back of Cochran Hall are in no condition for a match. The meet will begin at 2:30 in the afternoon and an admission of ten cents will be charged for the purpose of defraying the expenses.

EXAMINATIONS

June 4—June 13, 1914.

The following is the examination schedule for the second term. Changes may be made in this schedule, which will be duly noted, but no changes will be made after Friday, May 29th. The official copy of the schedule with all changes noted will be posted on June 2. No changes either in place or time of examination will be made thereafter.

There are unavoidably a few conflicts. They should be reported to the Registrar not later than Friday, May 29th.

Examinations in one hour subjects will be limited to one and one-half hours, in two-hour subjects to two hours, in three-hour subjects to two and a half hours, and in four-hour subjects to three hours.

When a student has been absent from class for any cause one-seventh the total number of recitations, or more, a supplementary examination must be taken in the subject. Members of the athletic clubs and the Glee Club are allowed four absences above such fraction each term to fill club engagements.

Any student having supplementary examinations in more than three subjects should apply to the Registrar before Friday, May 29, that another time may be arranged for some of the supplementaries.

Examinations in subjects not scheduled will be arranged by the instructors.

Seniors must have completed all examinations before Tuesday evening, June 9. Seniors who are to be examined in subjects scheduled after that date will be examined specially at times to be fixed by the instructors.

GAME ON THURSDAY.

Next Thursday afternoon on Montgomery Field the Allegheny nine will meet the team from W. and J. for the third home contest of the season. Allegheny has not met W. and J. since the spring of 1912 and there is considerable conjecture as to the outcome of the game and the strength of the southern college in this branch of athletics. The Allegheny game will be one of a trip through this part of the state. Last week on a southern trip W. and J. defeated Bethany on the Bethany grounds 8 to 4. "Vic" Younkins was pitcher for the entire game and it is probable that he will pitch in the Allegheny game.

The line up for the two teams will probably be:

Thoburn,	c	Schwab
Mellon
Brookmire,	p	Younkins
Gilbert
Robinson	ss	Goodwin
Campman	1	Nuss
Emery	2	Leydic
Shenefelt	3	Moser
Richard	1	Heyman
Bash	m	Spiegel
Gilbert	r	Bovill

GERMAN PLAY.

The German Club, under the direction of Mr. Dewey, will present Friedrich's comedy, "Ganschen von Buchenan," in either the Chapel or the Gymnasium, Monday evening, June 1. This play is a very clever one, and the form is so simple that the plot can be easily followed even by one who is not well acquainted with German. The club has been practicing the play for some time and now has it worked up in a very creditable manner. Several musical numbers in German will also be on the program.

The cast is as follows:

Der Baron—B. R. Beisel, '14.
Die Baroness—Miss Thelma Weissenborn, '14.
Von Fink—C. M. Miller, '17.
Agnes—Miss Ruth Lavely, '15.
Silberling—L. Pappenhagen, '15.
Jakob—Clair Sweetland, '14.

The final election of officers of the Oratorical Association was held in Bentley last Tuesday and resulted in the election of the following officers for the coming year: President, W. J. Armstrong, '16; Secretary, H. E. Drake, '16; Treasurer, W. M. Depp, '16.

Miss Elizabeth Reed, of Scottdale, is spending a few days with her sister, Miss Jessie Reed, '14.

Thursday afternoon the outgoing cabinet of the Y. W. C. A. entertained the Faculty ladies and the members of the new Cabinet at a tea in the Y. W. C. A. rooms in Hulings Hall.

Last Tuesday afternoon Theta Delta Psi defeated Phi Delta Theta in base ball by the score of 4-3. Hoffman and Mellon and Barns and Zelwis formed the batteries.

The Wednesday evening meeting of the Y. W. C. A. was made an "open air" meeting and was enjoyed by all. Mrs. Decker was the leader and she gave a very helpful talk.

Harold H. Lamb, '10, has recently been chosen medical editor of the "Owl," which is the annual of the University of Pittsburgh. Mr. Lamb is a Senior in the Pitt Medical School.

The local chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained the members of Kappa Alpha Theta, Alpha Chi Omega and Alpha Gamma Delta at a tea at the home of Miss Florence Downing, '16, on Wednesday afternoon.

Louise Gould, '15, led the Sunday evening meeting of the Y. W. C. A., taking as her subject, "The College Woman as a Teacher." Mary Carroll, '16, sang a solo and several of the girls gave short talks.

In a practice game on last Tuesday the 'varsity defeated the Phi Gamma Delta team by the score of 5-2. The batteries were Brookmire and Mellon for the 'varsity and McKay and Drake for the Phi Gams.

The result of the recent Student Government election is as follows: President, Mary Barkley; vice president, Edith Askey; secretary and treasurer, Margaret Simpson; Junior members, Helen Gate, Hazel Ross; Sophomore member, Ruth DeLand.

The newly granted chapter of Alpha Chi Rho will be installed at Allegheny on next Saturday. In addition to the fifty members of Theta Delta Psi, who will be present, there will be about the same number of visitors from various chapters of Alpha Chi Rho. After the formal installation has taken place a banquet will be held at which many of the national officers of the new fraternity will speak.

There were two sorority parties in the last week, both held at Saegertown. Thursday evening Gamma Rho chapter of Kappa Kappa Gamma entertained at a formal spring party for their friends. Dr. and Mrs. R. E. Lee were chaperones. Saturday evening Mu chapter of Kappa Alpha Theta entertained formally at Saegertown Inn. Dr. and Mrs. G. E. Snavely and Professor Malcolm H. Dewey and Miss Sabra Vought were chaperones.

The first number of the "Scarlet and Gray," the publication of the class of 1913 of Allegheny College, has appeared under the editorship of C. S. Miller, '13, and presents short letters from nearly all the members of the class telling of their experiences of the past year and the plans for next year. The booklet is very attractive in form and presents the messages from the different members in a clever and pleasing style.

G. R. Phillips, who was to have represented Ohio Wesleyan in the Intercollegiate Civic Oratorical Contest last Tuesday evening but who failed to arrive in time for the contest, delivered his oration before the students in the Chapel Friday morning. The oration was entitled "The Future American" and in it the speaker dealt in a very interesting and at the same time forceful way with the immigration problem. Mr. Phillips is a member of Alpha Delta Phi fraternity and of the class of 1915.

The election of the electoral board for the 1915 Kaldron editorial board was held last Saturday morning and resulted as follows: Miss Ruth Browning, '14, Miss Louise Gould, '15, O. J. Graham, '15, H. K. Brooks, '15. The election in the first group resulted in a tie between P. W. Johnston, '14, and W. H. Fegely, '14. As there is no provision for a tie in such an election the case will be brought before the College Council and some action must be taken on it in that body before any further election can take place.

During the past week W. H. Fegely, president of the Senior Class, has announced the following speakers for the farewell addresses to the various college buildings:

Hulings Hall—N. L. Ramsey.
Wilcox Hall—Miss Rea.
Bentley Hall—Miss Browning.
Observatory—Miss Jessie Reed.
Chapel—Miss Hunt.
Ruter Hall—J. H. Graham.
Gymnasium—C. M. Dotterrer.
Cochran Hall—C. Sweetland.
Alden Hall—F. A. Richard.
Library—Miss Gertrude Reed.

The German Club and the French Club, Le Petit Salon, held a meeting at the Phi Gamma Delta house last Tuesday evening. A varied and enjoyable program was carried out by the members of the two clubs. Miss Gertrude Hammond, '14, read a paper dealing with the three unities in German plays. Miss Lucille Lippitt, '15, gave a French reading. Miss Gay Kellogg, '14, read a paper on the three unities and other detailed phases of the French play. Leo H. McKay, '16, read a German ballad, after which there were two vocal solos, one by R. H. Downing, '15, of the German Club, in French, and one by E. S. Weidle, '14, of the French Club, in German.

During the past week the mission committees of the Y. M. and Y. W. C. A. have started the raising of the Swearer Fund for the support of Wilbur C. Swearer, '95, and Mrs. Swearer in the mission field of Korea. This has come to be an annual event, and these two missionaries have come to be regarded as belonging distinctively to Allegheny. This year the method of raising the money has been changed. Two large blackboards have been placed in front of Bentley and the different fraternities are marked up with the contribution each makes each day of the campaign. In this way the progress of the fund each day may be noted and also the activity of each organization.

The meeting of the Y. M. C. A. in Cochran Hall last Wednesday evening was in the nature of an Eaglesmere rally. The president, H. J. Hartman, '15, presided and called for speeches from John Bright, '15, head of the Bible Study committee, and from James Lane, '15, head of the Mission Study committee. It is desired to send ten men from the Allegheny Y. M. C. A. to represent this college at the summer conference of college Y. M. C. A.'s to be held this year from June 12 to 21 inclusive at Eaglesmere, Pa. The young women of Hulings Hall are succeeding in sending ten of their members to the Y. W. C. A. conference at Eeaglesmere which immediately follows the men's conference and it is desirable that the local Y. M. C. A. shall be as well represented.

The interclass track meet will occur this year on Friday, May 29. Considerable enthusiasm is being created in all classes. At present it appears that the Juniors, winners for the past two years, have the edge on their opponents and that the real battle will be fought for second place.

that she be permittted to decide all matters pertaining to her "national honor." Mr. Brodio then took up this matter of "national honor" and showed how by the submitting of all matters to the decision of other disinterested nations as judges the United States would, far from losing honor, rather gain honor in the eyes of the world for it is impossible for others to dishonor us—that is only possible for us ourselves to do. His plea was for an immediate understanding of this fact and for the awakening in this country of the new conception of national honor which will cause the United States to take her place among the leaders of the universal peace movement of the world.

The last speaker was Ralph Alexander of Wooster, whose subject was "Before the Judgment Bar." His theme was a powerful arraignment of the liquor traffic. He charged the liquor traffic with poverty, crime, bad politics, murder of men and women, despoiling of the home and women. He showed the fallacy of the argument of the liquor men that it is a matter of personal liberty as to whether a man drink or not by showing that the Constitution does not recognize the right of the individual when that personal right endangers the liberty of others. His oration ended with the strong plea that this disgrace might be wiped from our country. Mr. Alexander was given second place by the judges.

The judges of the contest were Professor Waterman, of the Meadville Theological School; W. H. Dight, of Saegertown, and A. C. Caskey, of Oberlin, O.
