Mr. William Wittefelt,
928 S. San Pedro St.,
Los Angeles, Calif.

My dear Mr. Wittefelt:

Something over a month ago I wrote you, asking if you would be willing that I should use a fac simile or if not that a copy of the Lincoln letter which you submitted to me some time ago for sale, in a subscription edition of my "Life of Lincoln".

If you have not sold the letter I think it would be a useful place for it to be presented as I would of course give your name and address as the owner. I would be very much obliged if you will let me know how you feel about it.

Yours very truly,
