TWO ONE-ACT FOR OPENERS

With an increased appropriation from the A. U. C. and a full schedule, the Allegheny Playshop plans to open the 1938 season by a repeat presentation of two one-act plays of last year.

The Florist Shop, under assistant director Betty Boltz, will have in its cast Martha Keefe, Helen Litten, John Megahan, Charles Liggett, and William Beckfield. Second choice for the program, He Ain't Done Right by Nell, will include in its cast Margaret Turner, Jane Hartman, Elizabeth Boltz, Charles Miller, John Barkley, and John Jones. Helen Hahn will assist in the direction of the play, while Bruce Barackman will act as stage manager.

CONCERT BY BOHUMIR KRYL GIVEN SOON

ORCHESTRA TO APPEAR HERE IN FIRST NUMBER OF LECTURE COURSE

The College-Community Concert-Lecture Course opens for this season at the Meadville high school auditorium at 8:15 p. m. on Thursday, October 6, with Bohumir Kryl and his symphony orchestra.

Kryl has been termed "tht most remarkable cornetist in the world," and headlines the world over have proclaimed the leader's popularity.

His symphony orchestra is an organization now entering upon its thirty-fourth consecutive season, during which period it has presetned over twelve thousand concerts.

Last season Kryl broke all records by playing to 162 audiences and was acclaimed everywhere for outstanding programs and brilliant performances.

Soloists Feature Program.

Features of the program will be the voices of Dorothy Dickerson and Burtis Preston, soloists. Florian Zabach, violinist, and Barbara Le Brun, harpist, will appear with the group. Zabach is acclaimed by the Prague Czeckish Mail to be one of the truly great young violinists of our day.

Year's Schedule Presented.

This year's concert-lecture course is made up of personages prominent in th spotlight of the world. The program's cover a wide range in that they include lecture on poetry, literary criticism, folk-song interpretation, and the rovings of a reporter-photographer.

The schedule for the remainder of the year is as follows:

William Lyon Phelps on November 7; The Poets Symposium on January 11; Julian Bryan on February 14; and Engel Lund on March 2.

FROSH WOMEN ELECT PROCTORS FOR SEMESTER

Having been duly oriented by the Associated Women students, freshman girls elected house presidents last Sunday.

Lois Woodbury of Beebe, Ann Jenkins of Tarbell, and Muriel Matson of Hammett were elected in their respective dormitories.

These girls will attend house responsibilities for one month. For the next two succeeding months Peggy McKelvie and Dorothy Jane Konstanzer will assume duties at Hammett.

The other houses will elect again under the supervision of senior court members, Betty Rehtmeyer, '39, and Shirley Baldwin, '39.

This group is cooperating with the Junior advisors to enforce quiet hours in the dormitories. Each evening from 7 p. m. to 10 p. m. a student advisor proctors at a freshman dormitory.

SOPH WOMEN PLEDGED; RUSH SEASON ENDS

After Vigorous Rushing Period Thirty-two Soph Women Pledge Sororities

(See Page 1 Box—"Pan-Hell Ruling")

A progressive coffee hour Sunday, September 18, marked the beginning of the four-day rush period for sophomore women. The following three days each fraternity held a formal rush party.

Alpha Xi Delta entertained their rushees at a roof garden Monday afternoon, and Kappa Kappa Gamma invited their rushees to a spaghetti dinner that evening.

Evening in Paris was the motif of the Kappa Alpha Theta party, while Theta Upsilon portrayed the various types of modern arts. Alpha Gamma Delta entertained at a carnival, and Alpha Chi Omega at a cocktail party in their "penthouse" Wednesday.

Quota of Seven.

Because of the small number of sophomore women, Panhellenic council set the quota for each fraternity at seven pledges. Bids were extended Thursday, September 22, at noon. Panhellenic council announces the following pledges:

Kappa Alpha Theta: Margaret Hopkins, Jean Megahan, Winifred Nippe, Donna Ochsenhirt, Jane Stewart, Marjorie Wible, Eleanor Young.

Kappa Kappa Gamma: Ann Albright, Mary Lou Allen, Ruth-Ellen Blake, Virginia Cavanaugh, Genevieve Cook, Florence Sells, Georgia Seitz.

SEVERAL NEW COURSES OFFERED STUDENT BODY

Allegheny's Curriculum to Be Enlarged by Addition of Courses in Various Fields

Allegheny's curriculum has been enlarged this fall by the addition of several new courses in the fields of art, math, classics and current events.

Attracting attention of alert students, the new course in contemporary affairs has already proven exceedingly popular.

Scheduled at 1:15 on Thursday, lectures have been presented on both the European and Asiatic situations. The course is under the direction of Professors J. R. Schultz, J. A. Cavelti, Paul H. Giddens, Hurst R. Anderson, and F. F. Seely.

Two new art courses have also been added. One, a course in freehand drawing and painting, is now being offered. The other, in the development of Baroque painting, sculpture, and architecture after the culmination of the Renaissance will be given next year. Both courses are directed by Dr. Julius A. Miller.

Word Study Offered.

PAN-HELL RULING

At a recent meetingn Panhellenic Council decided that no women's fraternity shall pledge more than the quota of seven sophomore women until the end of the 1938-1939 term, or until each fraternity has filled its quota.

NINETY-ONE FRESHMEN TAKE PLEDGE PINS

Rushing Week Activities Are Concluded on Sept. 25 As 70% of Freshmen Pledge

With rush week activities continuing during the past week, reports to date show a total of 91 members of the freshman class pledged to the various men's social fraternities.

Radio parties, banquets, steak bakes, and luncheons were the featured events of the week, from Sunday, Sept. 18, to the followign Sunday noon, at which time pledging was officially begun.

Phi Gamma Delta reports the largest number of pledges, 20, with Phi Delta Theta following with 18. The complete list follows:

SPEECH DEP'T RESUMES DEBATE PREPARATIONS

Allegheny Debaters Attend Conference in Harrisburg; Season Topic Selected

Allegheny's speech department under the direction of Professor Hurst R. Anderson, has begun an intensive program of preparation for this season's forensic activity.

Varsity debaters have been organized and are obtaining material on the debate questions for the Pennsylvania and Ohio conferences.

Herbert Rosen, '39, Robert B. Wright, 40, and James N. Gettamy, '41, representing Philo-Franklin union and Mr. Charles E. Irvin, Allegheny speech instructor, attended the annual conference of Pennsylvania college debating associations at Harrisburg last Saturday.

At that time the conference adopted the following resolution as this year's ground for argument: "Resolved that the United States should follow a policy of isolation toward all nations involved in international and civil conflict."

Ohio Conference.

Ohio colleges held their conference at Cleveland, September 24. Professor

A. U. C. ALLOTS FUNDS TO CAMPUS ORGANIZATIONS

Budgeting of student funds for the academic year 1938-1939 was the important item of business at the Allegheny Undergraduate council meeting Sunday evening.

Significant to the entire student body, this year's budget was discussed and sums were alloted to various organizations on the most equitable basis possible.

Lacking a final statement from the treasury department, the following tentative allotments have been made:

Activity	Allotment
Kaldron	$2100
Playshop	800
Debate	600
Singers	1000
Campus	1200
Literary Magazine	470
Band	100
Miscellaneous	100

Comparison with last year's budget reveals that though the total sum remains the same, the grants to various organizations have changed.

Last year's budget included: Kaldron, $2300, Campus, $1069, Literary Magazine, $520, Singers, $1200, Debate, $600, Playshop, $400, and Band 150.

Allotments will be confirmed as soon as the A.U.C. hears from the treasury department.

Class Elections Planned.

Three class elections, to be conducted by A.U.C., are scheduled for next week. Definite dates have not yet been chosen.

The freshman class will elect four officers: president, vice-president, secretary, and treasurer.

The sophomore class will elect a treasurer to fill the position vacated by George Stitzinger, '42, who did not return to college this fall.

A vice-president for the junior class must also be chosen to fill the vacancy created when Ruth Wetherbee, '40, did not return.

Homecoming Discussed.

Forrest Foster, '39, Frances Batchelor, '39, and Velma Zwilling, '40, were appointed members of a committee in charge of Homecoming events on October 22 and 23.

Cooperating with Samuel Hazlett, '40, head cheer leader, the committee will arrange to assist alumni who will return to the campus. Festivities with which the committee will be concerned include the football game with

TWO SENIORS WIN PHI BETA KAPPA AWARD

JUNE SIEBERG AND ROBERT ALBRIGHT TO RECEIVE KEYS

Highest scholastic awards were received on Friday by two Allegheny seniors, Robert Albright and June Sieberg, '39, when their election into membership in Allegheny chapter of Phi Beta Kappa was announced by Dr. C. A. Darling. The basis for this award was their maintaining an A average throughout their first three years at Allegheny.

Both Miss Sieberg and Mr. Albright are well known for their participation in campus activities. Miss Sieberg is a member of Alpha Chi Omega and Cwens, and is active in Playshop work and the Outing club.

Mr. Albright has gained recognition as editor of the Kaldron. He is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity.

Dr. Darling explained the significance of Phi Beta Kappa and traced its development from its origin at William and Mary College in Williamsburg, Virginia, in 1776, until the present time.

Started as a social fraternity by a group of scholars gathered in a historic tavern, Phi Beta Kappa is today the largest among honorary fraternities, and membership in the fraternity is recognized as the highest scholastic award.

Honors Awarded.

Honors in the respective classes for the past year were announced by Dr. C. F. Ross. In each class, students who have had no grade lower than B during the year and who have maintained an average of A are awarded "First Honors".

48 HOURS SET FOR HOMECOMING ACTIVITIES

Providing 48 hours of entertainment and opportunity for reminiscing, Allegheny's campus will be the mecca for alumni on Saturday and Sunday, October 22 and 23.

Bentley Hall will be the first scene of activity. Here the board of trustees and the officers and directors of the Alumni association will convene at 10 a. m.

Alumni then will be guests of the college at a buffet luncheon to be served in Hulings hall at 12. Particularly significant this year is the vote to be taken at the luncheon on the revision of the constitution for the alumni association.

Football will occupy the center of the stage in the afternoon when Allegheny meets Grove City at 2 p. m.

Social Activities Numerous.

Following an alumni tea in Hulings lounge at 4:30, fraternity, sorority, and independent dinners will be served at 6:30.

The evening program includes a

WALKER GIFT UNVEILED SUNDAY

Formal dedication and unveiling of the pool statue given to the Alumni gardens by the late Colonel Lewis Walker took place on Sunday at 3:30.

Dr. John Ritchie Schultz, dean of men, presided at the ceremony to which members of the Meadville Garden club and local friends and alumni of the college were invited.

Opening the program, Dr. Schultz called on Mrs. E. A. Walton, president of the Meadville Garden club, who extended a short greeting from the club.

President Tolley, speaking in behalf of the college, briefly enumerated the gifts of Colonel Walker to the college.

"Lit" Celebrates Birthday With Frosh Writing Contest

Forty-two years ago this October the Allegheny Literary Monthly set out on its distinguished way, with the aid and encouragement of Miss Ida Tarbell and Dr. Perrin. Since that time the magazine has been a distinct part of the life at Allegheny College.

There are some who feel that the Allegheny Literary Magazine is a ponderous title for a periodical to stagger under. There are even some, I understand, who dismiss the magazine with a wink and a nod. But they are the ones who do not know the honorable years which lie behind the magazine. They are those who would snicker at their grandmother's funeral.

Not that there is anything funereal about the Lit. Far from it. Probably no other part of college life reflects the history of the nineties. There are the war years. There are the flippant, jesting twenties. There are the sophisticated thirties. And there is today. The articles in the Lit are the products of many student minds, and the shelf of bound Lit magazines in the stacks is one of the most interesting group of documents in the Library. One of these days when I have only eight or ten things to do I may go into that a little deeper.

But this is the present—the Golden Present, when all things are best, the Lit among them. Great the past may have been, but it is the present that we have to strive with. Unusual for a campus organization, the Lit has no debts from other years. There will be five issues this year instead of four. There will be new articles, new departments, new paper, and above all new writers.

For several years the Lit staff has sponsored a Writing Contest for the Freshman Class in order to discover new talent and encourage the latent Muse. This year's Freshman Class is particularly fortunate to enter college at a time when the Lit has loosened its purse strings so much that the prizes are to be larger than ever before. There will be a first prize of $5.00 and a second prize of $2.00 in both the field of prose and the field of poetry. Three members of the faculty will judge the contest. There is no limitation of age, sex, subject, length, weight or political views. It is only necessary that you have something you want to say.

Now naturally the Lit staff, benevolent young idealists though they may be, are not anxious to scatter this money out purely as largesse. They want keen competition and much material so that the judges will have a

Glass Blowing Virtuoso In New Faculty Member

He was a member of Delta Upsilon at Wesleyan University in Middletown, Connecticut . . . his alma mater.

His Doctor's degree was earned at Harvard. While there he wrote music for the student revues and blew glass gadgets for the laboratory.

Enjoys reading novels, gets a kick out of good detective stories, but also goes in for "deep literature". At present he is about half way through With Malice Toward Some, much discussed book of the moment.

Once was "a keeper of the bees"—udring his pre-college days; he likes symphony and swing, and doesn't believe in dictators.

Wouldn't you know it? His favorite movie actress is Myrna Lay, with Spencer Tracy taking second place as to the masculine side of it.

His solution for the war crisis is an international economic boycott; roast beef is his "dish"; a coke—the way they are made in the Carolinas—is his idea of an ideal thirst quencher.

He enjoys most sports, baseball being "tops"; bright nail polish and make-up in moderation are all right; the new "stand-up" hair styles for women are a passion of hits.

He owns a Plymouth car, doesn't mind if his students sleep in class just so they don't snore and bother the others; he hates cheese.

His friends tell him that he is a "lousy" tie-picker-outer; blue is his favorite colour; doesn't own a hat.

One of the many Chesterfield fans around here; also smokes a pipe; in fact, anything goes except one of Professor Cavelti's "mild cigars".

If you ever need a fourth for bridge, you couldn't find a better partner; fall is his favorite season; he hates conventions and any sort of formality.

For his own amusement, he plays the piano, writes poetry, goes in for surf swimming in a big way; chess and ping-pong are his indoor sports.

Bringing him closer to home, he believes in giving lots of exams; thinks that Allegheny is one of the nicer spots in Meadville; so far the freshmen have given him a very good impression.

Yes, he's a newcomer to our fair campus. Two last clues to his identity are: he proctors the south section in Caflisch Hall, and his initials are H. S.

In case you still find this whole thing an enigma, it's only fair to let you in on the secret. Our "mystery man" is Professor H. S. Rhinesmith, a drawing card in any college's catalogue.

OPENING GUN

With this issue, "The Campus of Allegheny College" enters into its sixty-second consecutive year of publication. This is a record of service which few college papers in any section of the country can boast, and one of which the staff and student body can justly be proud.

Originally working on a monthly publication schedule, "The Campus" shortly became a weekly, and has continued on that basis without interruption. It has been the policy of successive college administrations that the student paper was a necessary part of student life, useful as a means of expressing and crystallizing undergraduate opinion. As such, the authorities left the paper free of any faculty influence or censorship. Alleghenians, having never known any other faculty attitude toward their paper than this liberal one, are prone to overlook the fact that there are a comparatively small number of college publications on a similar basis. But "Campus" staffs never overlook this freedom, or fail to be thankful for it.

A large part of the freshman class is looking at its first "Campus". To them, we extend the hope that the paper will become, in the course of four years, a familiar and welcome part of Allegheny. We might also refer the class of '42 to the page one box concerning tryouts for the new staff, and invite them to try their hands at the noble profession of journalism.

To those upperclassmen who are familiar with the publication, greetings again, and our hope for a successful year in all respects.

Finally, the criticism and suggestions of the student body will be gladly received. Letters to the editor placed in the "Campus" box at Bentley will receive our careful attention, and "The Campus" will continue to print letters concerning important issues, or expressing particularly interesting points of view.

So enough of the greetings, and to the work at hand. May the sixty-second year of "The Campus" be as successful as the first sixty-one.

ATTENTION, '42

The first issue of any college paper automatically opens the clear season on exhortations to the freshman class. "The Campus" therefore seizes this opportunity to enlighten and generally edify the class of '42, with hopes that the advice will be interpreted as the product of experience and not any imagined superiority.

Some few of the newcomers may be shocked to find that their first marks are something short of spectacular. It has been our observation that this retrogression is not the result of any decay in mental powers, but of the higher quality of classmates found in a college of the calibre of Allegheny. In high against a number of persons who are in school or prep school, the student is competing in obedience to state laws, rather than from any deep-seated desire for knowledge.

In the higher institution, however, while a certain amount of sub-average material may exist, the individual is in competition with students whose interest and ambition may lead them to exert an amount of energy productive of real scholarship. This is not to say that all students in high school are loafers, or that all collegians are Phi Beta Kappas. It is merely to suggest that the amount of work which produced excellent grades in secondary school may result in only average work in college.

It will also be noticed by the new undergraduate that work is to a large extent unsupervised. Material is presented, and the student is left to his own devices to either take it or leave it alone. This leads, in some cases, to a sad homecoming about the middle of January, the result of the student having too enthusiastically "left it alone".

The problem boils down to one of acclimation, of "getting used to it". Each person must make his own adjustments as to time and amount of work, time spent in doing nothing, time spent in extra-curricular activities. Some fortunate few may have already made the necessary evaluations of the various phases of college life. Some will take longer, and some will never make them. But to each member of the new class, "The Campus" extends its own belated welcome, and the hope that the class of '42 contains none of the last-named variety. Coming into school with the records you do, great things are expected of you. It is our hope that you fulfill all these hopes, and we wish you the best.

A NEW MEMBER OF THE ALLEGHENY JOURNALISTIC FAMILY

Saturday's game witnessed a new arrival on the local sport and journalism front, and one which fills a crying need. We refer, of course, to the "Allegheny Athletic News", designed to replace the somewhat over-commercialized football program. The magazine performed the function well, in view of the difficulties connected with the launching of an entirely new publication.

We understand that it is the hope of the editors that reception of the "News" will warrant its continuance into the home basketball season. As a brother student publication, 'The Campus" hopes so too. There may be some who will have a nostalgic ache at the passing of one of the college's better rackets, but it seems that football crowds will be better served by the "News" than they were by the numerous advertisements of the old program.

OUR INIMITABLE SCHOOL SPIRIT

The opening game last Saturday brought to light a situation in which Allegheny audiences are uiqnue. We defy anyone to find another student body which could sit with almost complete apathy and watch its team pile up thirty-two points on a supposedly strong opponent, their silence only turning to real cheers on occasion of a touchdown by the local stalwarts.

The situation becomes more depressing when the fact is considered that we are not watching hired performers, but a really representative Allegheny team. With the difficulties which must be and have been overcome to furnish local rooters with a winning team, it seems poor enough pay to reward the team and coaches with such a polite display of support.

Adding the crowning touch, a goodly proportion of the spectators became so bored with the proceeding that they were unable to stick it through to the end. Sauntering in and out with the lackadaisical attitude typical at both the all-college and the freshman pre-game "pep" meetings, the students held up their end, while the team let them down with a mere five touchdowns!

Heaven help the Homecomers, if the spirit remains at the same low ebb all season. If it does, a wake will be the most effective celebration possible.

Allegheny and Alleghenians will miss a sincere friend and a sincere scholar in the late Dr. Henry Ward Church, Professor of Romance Languages. Dr. Church's years of service to the college have left their impression on the school, the student body, and on all those who came into contact with him. As national president of his social fraternity, Beta Kappa and founder and president of Phi Sigma Iota, honorary language fraternity, his achievements brought recognition from all sides.

OFFICIAL ANNOUNCEMENTS

There will be an important meeting of the Block A Club tonight at the Phi Psi house. Time of the meeting is 6:30. All members are requested to be present.

First M.U.C. meeting of the year will be held at Cochran tomorrow at 12:00 noon. All members must be present.

Students who wish to purchase tickets for the Hiram game may obtain them at the Athletic Office for $.55. Tickets purchased at the game will be $.75.

Students who have not received their activities tickets must obtain them this week. Women may get tickets from Helen Litten, 2nd front, men from John Jones, Phi Gamma Delta house. Tickets are required for admission to numbers of the College-Community lecture series, Playshop productions, and for All-college dances.

NYA FORMS DUE; OFFICES MOVED

Local distribution of National Youth Administration funds will be handled this year by Miss Mina French, of the commercial department. Administrative offices will be located on the first floor of Ruter hall.

Due to the changes in the method of disbursement of the money, students will receive their checks by mail direct from the nearest state branch of the Federal treasury, instead of calling for them at the office of the college treasurer.

Rules governing NYA grants are as follows:

1. Office hours for NYA office are from 10 till 12 Tuesday and Thursday mornings.

2. Students working for members of the faculty must obtain their time slips from the faculty member before October 10. Others may call at the office before that date.

3. The last day on the first check will be October 16. Slips must be in before that date.

4. At hours other than the above office hours, slips may be left in the box outside the Ruter office.

5. All mimeographed sheets and official applications must be turned in immediately, regardless of whether forms have been filled out in previous years.

Generally Speaking

We don't like to be catty—it would be fatal to the Campus not to draw attention to the blotch on the resplendent hide of the Gator. By the evident omission of the Alley Gags in their first issue we are given the oportunity to disclose the scoops of the past few weeks—just generally speaking.

Not content with maintaining the Kappa-Psi Psi combination for only nine months of the year, Jo MeDannel and Lynn Meyers used summer school as an excuse for the first of several pin hangings. Janie Port believes in repetition for emphasis—Bobby Graft's pin is back once again after a year's leave of absence due to research work in various fields. The Phi Delts are maintaining their professional standing with two more pins going out within a week—complete with an announcement party for Marge and Slicker at Beebe House—and Davy looking sad-eyed until Janie Bernhard returns at Homecoming—Ah! the price of loving an alumni—oh well! it's easier on the budget, Dave. Speaking of Phi Delts—have you noticed the polish applied to the boys by Bill (Emily Post) Scarpitti? Back to the love life—Vivian Johnson is content with her solitaire in more ways than one—don't it shine purty? Has Shirley Baldwin (sweetheart of Sigma Chi) decided to end it all because her O. and O. is not in evidence on our fair campus? She was seen the other night hanging perilously by her fingertips to the railing of Hulings second front bannister. It was later discovered that it was not unrequited love but centrifugal force that put her there.

"Phi Gamma Delta house was recently redecorated by Halle's of Cleveland—Sigma Alpha Epsilon house by Woolworth's of Meadville"—statement submitted by Sigma Alpha Epsilon's Eminent Archon Arthur H. Gratz, Esq. —continued Mr. Gratz—"Aw shucks, we ain't proud."

What has happened to the old regime under the iron hand of Miss Rowley—what with Bill McCotter kicking over wastebaskets, Chuck Beiler and his funny jokes and Spring and Eddie staging a minor civil war, the library is about as conducive to study as Grand Central Station.

After Ross Beiler left for Iowa it was discovered that Ruthie Pratt's gleam in her eyes was merely a reflection from the Fiji star she is now sporting.

What's the matter, sophomores? Are you sissies? The toll of casualties among our sophomore men (so-called) leads us to believe that our Frosh have been leading the right kind of lives. The general excuse of the class of '41 is—we were outnumbered. We wish at this time to offer sympathies to Reed Hornefius plus broken nose, Billy McEwen and his stiff (?) neck, and to the sophs for an acute case of embarassment..

Student Body Offered Additional Courses

a one hour course in English technical terminology next semester. The aim of this course is to create in the students the ability to recognize new words through their knowledge of Greek and Latin.

Another second semester course is to be given by Mr. Joseph Fisher, new member of the economics department. It will include a comprehensive study of business cycles.

Math Courses Offered.

Dr. Louis C. Green will teach two new additions to the mathematics curriculum. One course is an intensive study of algebra, trigonometry, and analytical geometry to aid those students who wish to proceed more rapidly with their mathematics requirements. The second course, which deals with calculus, will not be given until next year.

Student Directors To Present Four One-Acts

According to Mr. John Hulburt of the Drama Dept., the one-act series will be open only to students participating in the playshop program. Mr. Hulburt announced that drama and speech students may secure complimentary tickets three days before each performance.

These student directed plays are a means utilized by the drama department to find material which may be used in larger productions later in the season.

All students interested in participating in this year's playshop program are asked to register at the Playshop office whether they have previously done work there or not.

'42 ATHLETES ARE ACCLAIMED BY LAWRENCE

This year's freshman class promises to be one of the greatest in athletic history at Allegheny. According to a recent tabulation by H. P. Way, the class of 1942, contains more athletes with good high school athletic records than any class that has entered Allegheny in recent years.

Containing athletes from big high school districts such as Pittsburgh, Cleveland, and Erie, the freshman lettermen number 63. Of these, 15 won their monograms in football, 1 in soccer, 26 in basketball, 4 in swimming, 10 in track, 6 in tennis, 2 in golf, 2 in baseball, 1 in cross-country, and 1 in ice hockey.

One thing outstanding in the athletes of the freshman, noted by Coach Lawrence, is that they are all well versed in the body mechanics of their particular sport although they aren't as big physically as last year's freshman class.

Last year was the first time in seven lean athletic years that Allegheny has had freshman athletics. The reinstallation of the frosh athletic program has proved its worth already in that two sophomores, members of last year's freshman football team, are now playing first-string on the varsity.

29 REPORT FOR FROSH FOOTBALL

As a successor to the successful freshman football which was started last year, twenty-nine men reported to their first practice, Monday at 3 p. m., September 26.

Star athletes from high schools in the areas of Pittsburgh, Erie, and Cleveland are participating. Fifteen of the twenty-nine squad members are former high school letter men. At present the squad is practicing three times a week, but in the near future will be held daily.

This Fall marks the second year of freshman football under the instruction of Coach Lawrence, assisted by Coach Brickley. Games have thus far been scheduled with Grove City and Polish Alliance.

The following men are members of the freshman squad: W. Gregg, J. Nasta, G. Peiffer, R. Marasco, K. Williams, W. Praether, F. McKnight, E. Doolitile, E. Bauder, C. Kelly, R. Brossman, W. Mays, S. Horton, D. Gebbie, W. Main, J. McCafferty, R. Hewitt, R. Hanlin, E. Roberts, E. Anger, W. Mould, H. Roberts, J. Wylie, R. Caldwell, R. Spears, W. Riegger, W. Bowman, B. Fauver, G. Johnston, B. Wible, W. Shuster, D. King, H. Van Vlack.

Varsity Players Are Barred From Intramural Athletics

Allegheny's new intramural program, drawn up under the sponsorship of Intramural Director Bruce T. Brickley, went into effect last week with the opening of the touch football season.

The program is practically the same as in preceding years except for the addition of a clause stating that "no varsity player or man of varsity calibre in any sport may participate in intramurals while he is engaged in intercollegiate activities." This means that a varsity soccer man or one capable of a position on the soccer squad cannot participate in touch football. The only intramural in which a man might participate would be golf, which is an open tournament.

This program was passed by the intramural board during June, when the chairman, Mr. Brickley, with six fraternity representatives, drew up and pushed the program to completion.

The following statement includes the official summary of the new program, as presented by Intramural Director Brickley:

The intramural program is vitally interested in giving every man in college a chance to compete in worthwhile athletics—mainly with the idea that each man will take with him, when he graduates, at least one activity which he can use for physical recreation.

The freshman and varsity teams include those men who are good athletes—men who are, so to speak, the "cream of the crop". They are, almost without exception, adept in practically every division of sports.

In contrast with this athletic group are the others like Mr. Doe. These men come to college with a mediocre knowledge and playing ability insofar as the sports are concerned. These are the men who need the intramural program. These are the men whom we want to improve physically, so that they leave college with a better physical make-up and a better chance to keep up the improvement through continued activity in the sports which they learned to enjoy in the intramural program.

Why not give Mr. Doe and his cohorts a chance?

With this in mind, the Intramural Council approved the following plan during summer school. Every fraternity was represented, and the vote was unanimously for the plan.

1. Varsity men and freshman squad members will be ineligible to participate in intramural activities which take place during that varsity or freshman sport season.

2. Varsity and freshman squad members will be given points for their varsity participation. Thus no fraternity is penalized because its members prefer varsity sports to fraternity sports.

This scoring is on the following bais:

Major sport—Letter, 5; Squad, 2; Freshman squad, 1.

Minor sport—Letter, 3; Squad, 1; Freshman squad, 1.

LITTEN TO ME

By HELEN LITTEN

The women't athletic program for 1938-39 is off to a flying start with a tennis and an archery contest well under way. Ann Albright, who is in charge of tennis, has planned a tournament for both the Freshmen and Upperclassmen, with the winners of each contest competing for the final victory. Betty Buchanan is acting as chief Robin Hood for the season, and plans to have an inter-sorority tournament followed by individual competition providing the elements remain favorable.

A bowling tournament is rolling right along under the careful tutelage of Edith Green. As the season progresses, it is planned that a mixed tournament will be included in the program.

Freshman athletic teams have been organized with Marjorie Wible, Donna Ochsenhirt, Ruth Mary Kroft, and Jane Hartman as advisors. These Sophomores will help organize the groups so that they may put up a bold front in the oncoming slaughters.

Running off of the basketball schedule and the subsequent duties which it entails will be the job of Ruth Mary Kroft on the Athletic Board. Ruth replaces Margaret Howells.

A bit of revising has been done on the point system this year and as a result, students will not get points for individual participation in sports. In oredr to obtain points, it will be necessary to play on a team. Winning team members will receive additional points, but any team activity will reap some reward.

Special riding classes from ten to twelve on Saturdays have been arranged for upperclass women. This enables the Freshmen and Sophomores to put in the required hours during the week and is designed to eliminate the confusion so prevalent previously.

The Outing Club held its first meeting of the year, Tuesday, September 27, at Carnegie Hall. Plans and programs for the coming year were discussed and committees appointed. Peg Watt is in charge of Food; Tom Allison, Cabins and Trails; Don Starr, Transportation; Betty Rehtmeyer, Social; Chuck Bayliss, Workshop; Georgia Seitz, Publicity; Equipment, Walt Maloney; and Membership, Herbert Koerner and Marjorie Lewis.

Dr. Hall was asked to be the Men's Advisor for the coming year. He accepted by remarking that he was "a bit stunned at having his family increase so rapidly."

The most pressing problem facing the club at this moment is that of transportation. Last week-end a group of the more husky members of the club took the situation in hand and hiked the eight weary miles to the cabin, accompanied by Miss Peffer, Coach Brickley, and Dr. Hall. The latter, the highest stepper of them all, led them a merry pace to the farm. As a result, Alice Bryant arrived "very much winded". The problem is really much more serious than it, sounds, for it is imperative that some means of transportation be provided in order that the club continue its existence. A station wagon is a much coveted goal at the present time and the "Black Shirters" are working tooth and fingernail to do what they can to get it. Any additional ideas, suggestions or help, will, needless to say, be very much appreciated.

A hayride is being planned for Tuesady, October 10 and a surprise is in store for those who brave the rigors of the weather for the joy of a good old fashioned time.

Tickets for the Hiram game may be purchased in Mr. Way's office for $.55. Admission at the gate will be $.75.

'GATOR DEFENSE CRUSHES CARDS IN '38-'39 OPENER

Displaying tremendous offensive power and a cast-iron defense, Allegheny's football team opened the current season here Saturday, smothering Otterbein under a 32-0 deluge of scoring.

The win ran the 'Gator victory streak to six consecutive games, and gave hilltop fans excellent indication that the locals will retain their crown won last season.

The defensive prowess of the team is shown by the fact that the opposition gained only 19 yards from scrimmage, 15 of which were secured on a last-minute pass against Allegheny's second squad. The blue and gold offense rolled over the visitors for a total of 238 yards. First down comparisons showed Allegheny leading again, 14 to 1.

The opening kickoff was run back by Bill Cook to the Allegheny 30-yard line. A pass, Cook to Lavely was good for 15 yards, but Allegheny lost the ball on downs on Otterbein's 10-yard line and an exchange of punts placed the ball on Otterbein's 23-yard line. Cook ran around right end for 19 yards and Swanson plunged it over for the first score of the game. Lavely converted for the extra point.

Allegheny's kickoff was returned to the Otterbein 15-yard marker where the visitors punted to their own 45-yard line. On another quick exchange of punts, the 'Gators gained 18 yards and with Swanson repeatedly hitting the left side of the line, Allegheny made the score 14-0. Lavely's placekick was good.

The 'Gators resumed scoring in the fourth quarter when Cook passed to Keilbaugh, 18 yards for a touchdown to make the score 20-0. Otterbein again kicked off and with Otterbein's ball on their 10-yard line Lavely intercepted a pass on Otterbein's 25-yard line and scampered to another touchdown. The last score of the game was brought by Keilbaugh, Allegheny's fleet left, recovering a fumble on Otterbein's 15-yard strip from where Cook ran it over to make the final score 32-0.

OUTING CLUB INCREASES CAMP FACILITIES

Construction of a faculty lodge and a conservation program include the major improvements at Bousson Farm during the past summer.

With the completion of the cabin a special faculty committee of Mrs. William P. Tolley, Mrs. Julian Ross, Dr. Chester A. Darling, Dr. John E. Cavelti and Dr. Louis J. Long has been appointed. The committee is planning the final furnishings of this three-roomed lodge situated on the north west hill.

To the main Outing Club cabin has been added a tool and work shed. It is expected that the skiis and personal camping equipment will be stored here. Not only the cabin itself, but the new recreational field will be the center of Outing Club activities this fall. The field especially is adapted to baseball.

Evidence of a conservation program has been seen in the pheasants and fish stocked this season. Young pine trees have been set making the planting total near one hundred thousand.

Five different trails for 20 miles have been marked; the longest measuring five miles, while the shortest only three-eights of a mile.

Intramurals

With the opening of intramural athletics last week, the touch football situation seemed to be dominated by three groups, the defending champs, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Alpha Chi Rho, and Phi Delta Theta.

In the first round play-offs, the Sigs defeated Delta Tau Delta, 12-0, Phi Delta Theta took over the Phi Gams 24-6, and Alpha Chi Rho accepted a forfeit from the Independent. In the first game of the second round, Phi Kappa Psi bowed to the Phi Delts, 12-0.

Grade of Play Poor.

Noticeable in the early play was the loose work of both the Sigs and the Delts. Phi Delta Theta showed too much power through the line for their opponents. Again on Monday the Water street aggregation triumphed, when the Phi Psi enemy weakened in the second half, after a bitterly-contested first period.

GOLF

Contrasted to the intense enthusiasm aroused by intramural football, the fraternity golf program has attracted little attention. Phi Kappa Psi is the only fraternity which has furnished the intramural board with a complete list of scores, although Sigma Alpha Epsilon has turned in its prospective team members. Members of the committee stated that this situation places the other houses in danger of having to forfeit their chances in the event.

Deadline for scores has been set at two weeks from today, to avoid any such wading-bee as occurred last season, when the fall rains set in before the program could be completed.

SOCCER TEAM SHOWS PROMISE OF GOOD YEAR

Seeking revenge for the 2-1 setback last season, Coach Way's Allegheny soccer men open the '38 season with Slippery Rock, on Friday at Montgomery Field. With two weeks of practice behind them, the local booters will enter the game in top condition. They are expected to give their opponents, one of the top-notch teams in this district, a busy afternoon.

Losing six lettermen by graduation, Coach Way faced the task of rebuilding a new team. The job has been lightened, however, by the return of several of last year's varsity and freshman stars. Veterans include Gatrall, Gratz, Appleyard, Ridenour, Hart and Captain Jones. Newcomers who show promise are White, Johnson, Baldwin, Mallick, and Caputo.

The tentative starting lineup for Friday includes:

Caputo, l.f.; George, i.l.; Baldwin, c.; Graft, i.r.; Ridenour, r.w.; Appleyard, r.h.; Hart, c.h.; Gattrall, l.h.; Jones, r.f.; Cares or Roha, l.ff.; Gratz, g.

SOCIETY

By JANE STEWART and ELEANOR YOUNG

The social lion again roared the opening of his season on the Allegheny campus with a myriad of pledge dances, radio parties, and week-end guests as proof of his power.

After the pre-season fling of fraternity rush parties, the nightlife formally opened Friday evening with a radio party at the Sig house, chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. Irwin and Coach and Mrs. Lawrence. S.A.E.'s week-end guest list included Tom Crawford, Mylan Harvey, Dave Shields, James Werle, Richard Gallagher, and Chet Pardee.

The S.A.E. house was again used Saturday evening amidst a maize of vari-colored goats, burlap, and tin cans for the Alpha Chi Omega Goat Gam-Ball, held in honor of the pledges.

Jean English, Betty Spring and June Sieberg were the committee in charge of the affair which had Dr. and Mrs. O. P. Akers and Dr. and Mrs. J. G. Lewis as chaperones. The sparkling music of the Town Club was supplemented by the singing of the traditional "Goat Song". Among the guests were Dr. and Mrs. Paul Giddens, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Martin, Misses Hortense Vickler, Betty Dobbins, Ruth Stafford, Margaret Coullie, Virginia Randall, Ann Wolf, and Jean Sebring.

Kappa Kappa Gamma.

Also honoring its pledges, Kappa Kappa Gamma frolicked to the rhythms of Phil King and His Orchestra, Saturday evening at the Phi Gam House. Chaperoned by Mr. John Hulburt, the party was arranged by Jane Davies and Mary Lou Williams. Kappa's guests were Misses Christine Black, Betty Boltz, Jean Bracken, Dorris Whacker and Lillian Spang.

Phi Delta Theta

Swaying and shagging to the jive of Erie's young maestro, Wes Scott, Phi Delta Theta entertained for their pledges at the house Saturday evening. Clever programs which were enlarged cellophane duplicates of the pledge pin were selected by the social chairman, Ed Wood. Among the guests were Misses Jimmy Melius, Jane Bernhard, Lillian Spang and Doris Whacker, Mr. Norman Martin, Gene Harzel, Jim Gilmore, Bill and Bob Cappe.

Alpha Chi Rho.

The smooth strains of Benny Jones' Orchestra made Alpha Chi Rho's pledge dance Saturday evening an outstanding success. Frivolity and swing were the keynotes of the party which was in charge of Forrest Foster, Tom Hazlett, and Bob Thomas. Miss Mildred Ludwig and Mr. R. H. Blashear were the chaperones.

Delta Tau Delta.

Delta Tau Delta went collegiate Saturday night with an old clothes party at the chapter house. "Gleeps" was the catchword of the evening and music was provided by the victrola. Sam Hazlett was social chairman of the affair, with Dr. and Mrs. David Dunn and Dr. Tongue as chaperones. Bob Geisinger and Tom Crawford were special guests of the chapter.

Alpha Gamma Delta.

Honoring actives and alumnae of Alpha Gamma Delta, Miss Edith Rowley an alumna of the local chapter, entertained at a tea at her home on Hamilton Ave. on September 25. Mrs. J. R. Schultz poured.

Phi Gamma Delta.

The Fiji House threw its doors wide open over the week-end to welcome back several alumni of Pi chapter. Jack McFarland, Herb Ransford, Art Bush, Frank Dean, and George Rose were their guests.

Regulations Made.

Regulations concerning the wearing of freshman "dinks" were adopted by the council. It was decided that the dinks must be worn until 5:30 p. m., instead of the former 6 p. m.

Sunday has been designated as a "day of grace" for the freshmen, since it will not be necessary for them to wear their caps on that day.

Continued refusal to wear dinks will result in offenders being called before A.U.C., it was learned.

Debaters Are Girded For Coming Season

Anderson, attending this meeting, reports the formulation of this topic: "Resolved that the United States form an alliance with Great Britain to prevent the further extension of fascism."

The women are anticipating a southern tour this year, while the men are interested in a northwestern trip. Definite plans have not yet been formulated.

Extemporaneous Contest.

Announcement of the men's extemporaneous contest to be held in the chapel Friday, October 14, has already been made. The general topic, advertising, will form the basis for the subtopics to be chosen by representatives of all fraternities and the independents.

tremendous job on their hands to read it all. And they want to publish the prize winning productions in the first issue of the Lit in November.

All through this article I have been tempted to fall into the graphic exhortation: "HOW DO YOU KNOW YOU CAN'T WRITE?" with one of those fingers pointing at the reader. This is good stuff but hardly in my line. However, the Lit staff does feel that there are many freshmen who can write, and who have something to say. So do not be doubtful of your abilities. Colelge is no place for an inferiority complex or you would never get served in Doc's. College is the place to develop your powers and enjoy yourself. And go to class too some. And also to enter the Freshman Contest sometime before October 24 when it closes.

Contributions may be left in Bentley in the Lit box, and they should have no name on the paper. There should, however, be your name in an envelope attached to the entry.

The Freshman Class is the largest class in school. It has in it some of the best students in school, some of the best-looking girls in town, and, I am convinced, some of the best writers in college. It is the purpose of the Fresman Writing Contest to discover some of these writers and give them a place in the Allegheny Literary Magazine, the best outlet for the students' mind. It is true that a certain degree of literacy is required to get much out of the magazine (a fact which, lamentably, is not true of certain college publications) but if you can overcome this difficulty, there is much of worth in the Lit.

So may the prayers of an editor be answered, and many, many people enter the Freshman Writing Contest.

FRESHMAN STUDY HALLS TO BEGIN

Supervised evening study periods for freshmen will begin at the end of the first six weeks period, according to an annoucnement released by Dean J. R. Schultz on Monday.

Only those students who are delinquent in their studies will be required to attend.

It is planned to hold the study hall three evenings a week for two hours. The place has not been chosen.

In years past the whole freshman class has been required to attend these evening sessions, but this year only the delinquents will attend.
