HOTEL POWHATAN

PENNSYLVANIA AVENUE-EIGHTEENTH AND H STREETS, N.W.

WASHINGTON, D.C.

Dear Lara! — How I wish I were there with you! I am in the stiffest fight I ever found. Trying to find a way to settle the world's latest troubles! I sit between Judge Gary & young John D. and from 9.30 to 6.30 listen to talk — try to get in a word now & then — generally fail — try to find out what I thing I generally end up by not-thinking anything As an intellectual exercise it is wonderful but as a method of getting things done it looks pretty hopeless just now.

I am going to N. Y. Saturday afternoon because I must see to 2 or 3 things there but I shall come right back Sunday night. This is to warn you I'll call up up about 10. a. m.

Sunday. I am moved to deal-ever your letter. - I am afraid Something is the matter that you ought to have attended to.
Won't you come down to John Hopkins for a week while I am there & leave a thorough examination and get their judgment. It would be such a relief to me if you would.
I'd gladly pay for ~~the~~ it - Please think of it. I'll call you up
