Mr. Delano made the error of supposing that William (1) Hanks of Richmond Co., Va., married Sarah White "widow of Richard White." When he discovered his error he sent the correction to Dr. Barton.
He did all of Dr. Barton's research.
William' Hanks married Sarah — time, place, and maiden name unknown — Upon the death of William' Hanks — before Feb. 7, 1704, (see Order Book 4:32) — his widow, Sarah, married Richard White who died 1708. Upon the division of the estate of William' Hanks, Richard White is given his share for his wife — so Mr. Delano concludes and I think it possible. L.D.W.

Covers period from about 1672 to 1800.

This copy made by L.D.W. Apr. 27, 1928.
Afterwards compared with a copy in the office of the County Clerk of Richmond Co., Va., at Warsaw Va.

Some pages are badly worn and defaced and many family records seem to be extremely fragmentary

An interesting feature is the long lists of births and deaths of slaves, with the names of their owners.

Never am I able to account for the paging of these old Record Books
