Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am glad to learn that there is a prospect of your developing a book from the editorials and the other material pertinent to them.

Let me say that if Macmillan -- to whom of course you will be talking about the book first -- is not interested, Appleton-Century is. And that I hope to read your manuscript when it is ready.

If you will, I'll appreciate your keeping me in touch with this matter's development.

Sincerely yours,

John L.B. Williams
