Mr. A. W. Hanna
256 Woodstock Ave.
Kenilworth, Ill.

My dear Mr. Hanna:

How can I thank you for your generosity in sending me these interesting facsimiles.

I had not dreamed of having a Washington thrown in, or this fascinating fragment from Goethe's Faust. Do you mean to tell me that you own the original manuscript of that splendid work? I am taking genuine pleasure in your envoi.

I hope, dear Mr. Hanna, that some of these days I may be able to do something to repay you.

With all good wishes, believe me

Very sincerely yours
