CHARLES (CHIC) SALE

Scarsdale N.Y.
Dec 15-1925

Dear Miss Tarbell-

I am writing to tell you what a wonderful ovation I recieved at the Lambs Gambol Sunday night with "He Knew Lincoln". It was the decided hit of the show. Mr Le Roy Clemmons, author of "The Deacon", which is now playing at the Sam H Harris Theatre has an idea for a play in which "He Knew Lincoln" could be beautifully incorporated. He is to hand me a synopsis before the middle of next month, and if I like it he will go right ahead.

I am a member of the Scarsdale Rotary Club, and at the January seventh meeting I am going to put on "He Knew Lincoln" as I did at the Lambs Gambol. Mrs Sale and I would consider it a great honor if you could come out and be our guest at the meeting, if it wouldn't be too much of hardship for you. They are going to make it quite an affair and the members of the White Plains and Yonkers Rotary Clubs and their wives are to be invited.

I am enclosing the Gambol program which you may be interested in.

Sincerely-

Chic Sale.
