Dear President Wright:

I regret sincerely that it is not possible for me to accept your invitation to speak at the luncheon at the Empire State Club on Thursday, November 19th, in behalf of Lincoln University. My time in November is fully mortgaged.

Be sure that I would do it if I could. I have great sympathy with the fine work the Lincoln University has been doing for so long. I hope that your ambitions for it may be realized.

Very sincerely yours

Walter Livingston Wright
President, Lincoln University
Chester County, Pa.
