Dear Miss Tarbell, we did have a lovely time on Friday night, even if we had to rush away without saying so. I wish we had not missed the circus — but the main pleasure was in having another glimpse of you — which does not happen very often. Little F. has had a heavy cold, since then, and we are in the first miseries of moving now — but when we are settled I do want you to find us an evening — and let us show you the house, the view, Frank, the chickens, the puppy, and all the new things. We both thank you for Friday nights pleasure — and I am as ever affectionately yours

K. Norris.
