

June 14, 1941

Dear Miss Tarbell:

I am writing a memoir on George Lincoln Burr for a forthcoming reprinting of his essays. In his correspondence I find a reference to your visit to Cornell. I wonder whether you have any recollections of him which might enrich a biographical sketch. I shall be indebted to you for anything.

Sincerely,

Roland H. Gainton