New York, N. Y.

Dear Miss Tarbell,

You may have noticed from the press notices that I am a candidate for the Supreme Court in the First Judicial District which comprises the Boroughs of Manhattan and the Bronx. In case you have not seen any of the press comment, I am enclosing some clippings.

We have already opened our headquarters at the Commodore Hotel, Room 370 and there is in process of formation a committee of 1000 outstanding citizens to sponsor my campaign under the auspices of the Citizens' Judiciary Committee.

I would consider it a great compliment if you would join this committee and above all if you can drop in at headquarters.

It is no easy task that I have assumed. It is the first time that a woman is running for so high a judicial office in New York State and I, naturally, must count on my friends for support.

I am running on my record as a judge and on my twenty-five years standing at the Bar as a lawyer.

May I look forward to your personal support and cooperation? I am at headquarters daily.

Thanking you in advance, I am

Sincerely,

Anna M. Kross
