Let's fight the jazz and swing craze

1910 East 38th Ave
Denver, Colorado.

Dear Miss Tarbell.

I am a disabled ex-soldier --- 5th enlistment period -- pvt to Sgt-Major. Old enough to have read the first instalments of your John D- in some monthly magazine --- Heard you say on the radio that it cost you $50- for a copy of Squibob papers --- also heard Deems Taylor, also on the radio;- read from Phoenixiana what "John Phoenix" had to say about music.

My reason for writing you is, that back in 1924 while living in South Dakota, I obtained a copy of the Squibob Papers which was picked up near the Custer battle ground. the day after battle. I wish to dispose of it as at the present time I dont have any relatives. and soon I may be too feeble to own anything outside of pajamas and bathrobe.

Cordially yours- James McCormick.
