June 2, 1931

Dear Miss Russell:

Early in May, 1925 Mr. Young wrote a letter to Samuel Untermeyer which was published in the newspapers. It was one in which he accused Mr. U. of loose talk, concerning profits on incandescent lights. I do not find it in the material you sent me and should like a copy of it, if possible. There are two speeches to which I find reference in newspaper clippings which are not in the collection of speeches which you sent me. The first was early in May 1925 at a dinner for the Public Service Commission. The second was in July 1930 at the dedication of the new dormitory at St. Lawrence. You probably have these in your files. I should like to add them to the volumes here.

How about my coming down tomorrow - Wednesday afternoon - for a talk? There are two or three things I should like to take up.

Very sincerely

Miss Helen Russell
