September 12, 1938

My dear Mr. Robertson:

I am delighted - and honored - by your invitation to the ceremonies at the depositing of the Westinghouse Time Capsule on September 23rd. The story of this contribution to a future world is the first item from the World's Fair that has really stirred my imagination. I shall be delighted to get a look at your rare bird and see it started on its amazing adventure.

You may count on me to be at the parking space on the West side of Lexington Avenue at 43rd Street at eleven thirty A. M. (DST) on Thursday the twenty third.

Very sincerely yours

Mr. A. W. Robertson
