January 18, 1940

Dear Mr. Gordon:

Thank you for your note of January 16th. Since you feel that my proposed article on Lincoln's relations with youth in the Civil War is too far a field for today I'll not bother Mr. Bigelow just now.

I am off for Arizona for a few weeks. When I come back I may have something more practical for the Good Housekeeping to talk about. Then I'll come in and see Mr. Bigelow or you if you will let me.

Very sincerely

Mr. Arthur Gordon
