

May 9, 1935

Dear Mr. Alloway:

Thank you for your letter of May third answering my query, and am I not glad that I was bold enough to write you.

Your comments are illuminating. I wish I knew what you do about the ways of Wall Street, but I am thankful that there is some one like yourself who is willing to enlighten my ignorance.

With all good wishes

Very sincerely yours

Mr. Henry Alloway
44 Broad Street
New York City