February 27th, 1919

Mr. T. T. Frankenberg,
16 East Broad St.,
Columbus, Ohio.

My dear Mr. Frankenberg:

You may have wanted to speak to them as much as you bakers seem to, and I am afraid after you have heard me, for I am no speaker, my dear Mr. Frankenberg - you will be sorry you were so insistent.

The war, and my health permitting, I will go to Boston in September, but please fix the date as soon as possible, and it cannot be the last week, as I must always be in Washington at that time.

Sincerely,

CHAIRMAN PUBLICITY COMMITTEE
