ALLEGHENY COLLEGE
MEADVILLE, PA.

OFFICE OF THE PRESIDENT
FRED W. HIXSON

November 14, 1922.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell, LL. D.,
120 East 19th Street,
New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell:

I have received your good letter of November 10 concerning the Founders' Day Address. Nothing could be more acceptable than your new "Lincoln" address and if you do not feel that pressure of work already scheduled will make it inadvisable for you to take on this additional address I should be more happy than I can tell you to be able to announce your coming on the date of April 24. I do not want to urge you beyond the point of the proprieties in the case, but permit me to say that the entire college community would receive the news of your acceptance with real enthusiasm and if you can come to us at that time without feeling that you must tax yourself in the matter of new preparation I believe you will enjoy the occasion very thoroughly.

I have just received news of the Annual Allegheny Banquet of the New York Association on December 8. I am planning to be present this year.

Hoping to see you at that time and with kind regards,

Ever yours,

Fred W. Hixson
