fit with bees

New York, January 23, 1920.

My dear Mr. Merwin:

Thank you for your interesting letter of January 6th about the bees. I understand of course that this element of chance goes with their keep, and that I shall have to take it as you do. I shall follow your counsel not to touch them, and I am writing Trup what you say about clearing out the entrance occasionally.

I am enclosing my check for $60. If you are up Easton way I hope you will give a look at them. I shall depend on you to come around, as you promised, in the spring and see if we have them properly set up.

Thanking you for your letter, believe me,

Very sincerely yours,

Mr. Harold B. Merwin,
Park Avenue,
Bridgeport, Conn.
