September 14, 1938

Dear Mrs. Roosevelt:

I am putting together a few recollections and in what I am writing I want to include a letter from Theodore Roosevelt written back in May 1911. As you will see I had taken exception to an article published in The Outlook - an "advt" article but not marked. I also apparently had made some comment about The Herald as a newspaper to which Mr. Roosevelt took exception. (I have no copy of my letter.) The result was this letter which with your permission I want to print.

I think you will agree with me that it is a highly characteristic document and has a certain significance in any intimate study of the period.

Hoping I am not imposing upon your good will, believe me, my dear Mrs. Roosevelt

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt
