Dear Ider M.:-

I shall be in New York the morning of the thirteenth, then until the evening of the fifteenth, and of course I want to see you. I haven't your telephone address but if you will give me a ring or drop a note at the National Arts Club, I will come a-running. I have an engagement for dinner the night of the thirteenth and Nicholas Murray Butler and I are going to have some kind of a pow-wow some time during the three days. Otherwise I am free except luncheon on the fifteenth when the Book-of-the-Month meets. I shall be back the morning of the twentieth and probably stay there until the night of the twenty-fourth, subject to your orders. If you see or hear of J.S.P. tell him to be watching out for me.

We had a gorgeous time in China. It is a wonderful experience. Get there as soon as you can, but don't expect very ritzy accommodations. Hotels in the Orient are like the morals east of Suez "where the best are like the worst."

Sallie is not well. She has a tired heart and is afraid to come with me. But we expect to be in Philadelphia in late June where I am going to report the Democratic convention, and of course we will be down in New York either before or after that party and if you are in town we shall both see you then. In the mean time I hope we can get together fairly soon.

Affectionately, W.A.W.
