New York, November 26, 1919

My dear Mr. Alber:

I have your letter telling me about Mr. Bridges's difficulty, also one from him so pathetic that I yield. I cannot begin my speaking earlier than the date now set. All I can do is to stop in the South on my way from the Coast, and I have so written him. I believe I am to be through about the 3rd. I would be willing to start at once, that is by the 5th, and put in his dates on my way to New York. Will you take care of the schedule with Mr. Ellison and Mr. Bridges.

Sincerely yours

Mr. Louis J. Alber,
