Dear Miss Tarbell:

By book post the two volumes of The Prairie years are coming to you. I can well imagine that you miss the books sent to the Library here and wish you had them at your elbow. I too wish you were within easy distance because we should then see you oftener. Dr. Schultz received a gift of the two new Sandburg volumes. Do you think we might get from Mr. Sandburg some of the material he, according to the reviewers, "carried to the barn" after having it read. Or would it be of no use?

Thanks for the Greetings to the staff. We all thank you very much. And our best Holiday Wishes come to you in return.

Sincerely yours,

Edith Rowley
