Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
122 East 19th St.,
New York City.

Dear Miss Tarbell:-

In reply to your favor of the 12th.

We have a superintendent in each one of our Chautauqua towns, who makes arrangements about hotels and other matters, and meets the talent at the train. You will be met in each community, and will not need to worry about hotel accommodations, for the best accommodations that the town affords will be arranged for you. The chances are there will be a hospitality committee in each town that will wait on you. I am afraid that you will encounter entirely too much hospitality in these towns, and it may become a burden to you.

You will receive from this office in due time your complete itinerary and railroad schedules. If there should be any changes in the time of trains, you will be made acquainted with that fact by these same superintendents about whom I have already written. Nothing is left to chance in our plans for these Chautauquas.

Very truly yours,

THE COIT ALBER CHAUTAUQUA CO.
