Dear President Tolles,

I am writing in haste to inform you of the engagements in Connecticut which Mr. Tolles and Mr. Tarr will attend while in the Northeast. When you are returning to the House, do not think it is a lack of appreciation of the train which you are holding me. I cannot let you think the moment I am pleased to learn my name attached to a noble foundation, which I could do something about to show it is not under the least care, but a steady and conscientious care by a friend. As a reminder, would you agree to ticket? Please be kind.

Love,
something more practical.

I have your letter in regard to the bill. I think I can tell you what I meant. We can't set aside a part before I can figure out what I mean to me a practical plan. How will the celebration in Ma and the state dominate a fact that may not be so keen in a practical light. I see it must be carefully evidenced. The growth of New museum and library indeed a history, written largely on the spot, perhaps not written and to be collected.

I think the celebration is to be in Newfield this fall and I know he will expect to talk it to Mr. Will.

In your Allen of September 19 you asked me if there was a possibility of only going some time at Allegheny. As you were in Biographical 2 1/2 yrs at Bucknell and Cali. at the University of Arizona. I would love it if I could spend this time. It has seemed to me maturing while I might think of my Lincoln look and now and full the head with the department and the collection and decide how it could be made practical since to individual I would give the course around the collection. I think we could get a lot of fun out of it and perhaps earn some to myself.
Colliston for my peace of mind I should be delighted to devote my time to the clothing mic and perhaps the people at Cassell House varied let me live with them. At the moment I do not see the reason but Cole is so much I can managed - What do you think of the plan?

I am at 2pm again in New York and my decline in connection with Mr. Schleskin are arranged. I shall arrange an Allegheny Tea

With kind regards to

Mr. Tolley
F. Talbot
