Dear Miss Tarbell:

Enclosed you will find proof for your article on unemployment security. Inasmuch as things are still at sixes and sevens in Washington, but may come to a head within the next few days, why don't you hold the galleys in hopes that the Wagner Bill will be signed before we have to shoot them through. We must, however, have the front page back not later than June 24th; and the rest of the proof by July 1st.

As to the choice of a subject for No. 6, Mr. Mayes is quite willing to abide by your judgment; and if you still feel that what they are doing up at Rochester is a better bet than Training for Industry, please scrap the Training and go ahead with the other.

I turned your expense account over to Mr. Mayes — and here is the check!

Cordially,

Lawrence M. Conant
