Letter written
Pearl Buck
Wait January

January 5, 1933

Dear Jean Mackenzie:

Talking with Pearl Buck a few nights ago she spoke of you as one of the people that she wanted much to meet while she was in America. Now how about you? If you have not already met Mrs. Buck and are in the mood to do so will you not let me arrange it in some way convenient to you both. She is to be in town week after next, is coming to the Pen & Brush Thursday afternoon, the Seventeenth. Possibly I could arrange a quiet dinner for the two of you that evening - something where you could really talk. Would that be possible for you? If so I will get in touch with Mrs. Buck's publisher who arranges her schedule.

I wish I saw you sometime, but if I don't I "read after you." Last week in the country I kept dipping in to African Trails with delight in its understanding and its beauty.

Faithfully yours

Miss Jean Mackenzie
