New York, U.S.A.

Dear Miss Tarbell,

On July 23rd, I sent you two volumes of Lord Randolph Churchill's Life by Mr. Winston Churchill, and I am anxious to know if they arrived safely, as I insured them and if they have not been delivered I must make enquiries here. It is quite possible that there may have been serious delay in the mails.

Hoping you are well, and as usual doing good work - Reports are still going on here re Coal Strike. I formed the opinion some time ago that there would not be one; and still think as I told you previously that Labor has over played its hand. The great majority of real working men are quite satisfied with their present wages.

Yours truly
Chas. A. Grenfell.
