My dear Miss Tarbell:-

I want to tell you with how much pleasure I have read your article "The Lincoln Way in Big Business," which appeared in the Cosmopolitan magazine for February.

I wonder whether you know that my dear husband died in July, 1930, in his 95th year? Just a few weeks before his death he dictated a short article on "The Lincoln I Voted For", which The Richland Co. Lincoln Assn. printed and presented as a souvenir at their meeting in 1931. Mr. Bonar was such an enthusiastic admirer of Abraham Lincoln, as you know, that he wanted to give some expression of his deep feeling for that great American. I shall be very glad to send you the little pamphlet if you would care to have it.

I often think of your visit here and of how much both Mr. Bonar and I enjoyed it, and he was so dear when he introduced you to your audience.

Mr. Bonar was not ill-he just grew a little weaker- and was in bed only one day. He had his fine mind until the last.

With kindest regards, I am,
