Dear Ida:

First of all, let me tell you how delighted I am that you have decided to undertake Judge Gary's biography. I realize fully that there may be complications ahead, but as you understand this thoroughly and I think the Judge does also, at least we are not going up a blind alley.

I have written Mr Sites this morning and sent him a copy of the main part of your letter, suggesting that he get in touch with you as soon as you return from your trip.

I trust you are having decent weather and will not return utterly exhausted.

Bert joined me in Washington for over Sunday. We had an interesting visit.

Yours always,

Miss Ida Tarbell
