Miss Ida M. Tarbell,

The American Magazine,

Union Square,

New York City.

My dear Miss Tarbell;-

Looking over mail that came while I was away from the office this summer, I find your letter of July 26th, in which you speak of the renewal of the Williamsburgh City Fire Ins. Co. policy, and also speak about the Bradley mortgage. This insurance has been attended to, I understand, as well as the insurance in the Continental Ins. Co. I notice, however, in looking over the record of these policies that they are made payable to Mrs. Bradley as Mortgagee. This should be changed and if you will return the policies to me, I will see that the proper correction is made and that they are sent back to you.

I never had the life insurance policy that you speak of in your letter.

The release of Mrs. Bradley's mortgage I had recorded and I inclose it herewith. You will find attached to it the note marked paid. You will also find inclosed the mortgage deed which you gave to Mrs. Bradley. I find that I have a record that 50 cents is due me for recording one of these deeds, but this is a small matter and need not bother you.

With kindest regards, I remain,

Very truly yours,

S/W.
