Dear Mrs Tarbell

Our sister Vivia Monroe passed out of her suffering, last night. It has been a long martyrdom such as saints only can carry as a sweet burden, day by day and year by year, All this she did and more, Her last expressions were the ~~[illegible]~~ she was to the children in the rooms above, because they could not romp aloud, then dear Mrs Monroe played her sweet music, that she has played to Vivia since she childhood, and she passed into sleep, Of many she was the one prepared to go,

Sincerely Yours
