Memo for Letter on Nomination of Janet Hartman:

We the undersigned feeling strongly that the women Alumni of Allegheny College should be more fully represented on the Board of Trustees than they have been in the past suggest the name of Hartman as a candidate for election.

Mrs. Hartman is known to us best by her intelligent, loyal and efficient work in the Alumni Association of New York. For years no activity of that Association has been carried out without her full and cheerful co-operation.

This has been given in connection with the multitude of taxing duties which she carries as the wife of the Reverend Hartman of the Class of '98, pastor of Church, where Mrs. Hartman is head of all sorts of social, educational and religious church activities. She has proved herself especially able in raising money for these enterprises.

Mrs. Hartman is a woman of progressive views, interested particularly in the education of young women and familiar with the problems this education creates in the modern world.

We believe that the Alumni of the College could not do better than to add her to the body of Trustees.
