Dear Mrs. Birney:

I am so sorry that I am so late in sending these few words about Miss Reed. I have been away as Mrs. Wolfe wrote you and since my return tied down by a piece of hurry work that left me no chance for anything else.

Here, however, is something for you to use or not as you think wise.

We shall be interested in what your magazine has to say of Miss Reed and we shall want a copy for the Pen & Brush.

Very sincerely yours
