Miss Ida M Tarbell

New York City

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Yours is among the messages which Mrs Bell has been holding for reply, - hoping to thank you in person for your affectionate expression of sympathy, - and which she has now been forced to hand to me for acknowledgement. Mrs Bell has found it impossible to make the personal response she would like in the case of some hundreds of telegrams and letters, and is especially sorry that she cannot write to you just now.

Yours sincerely,

Catherine D. Mackenzie
Secretary to Dr Bell.
