March 14th, 1911.

Miss Ida M. Tarbell,
o/o David Starr Jordan,
Palo Alto, Cal.

Dear Miss Tarbell:

Mr. Caldwell has sent me back the contract with three small corrections. He wants it to run to the "S.S. McClure Company"; he makes a typographical correction on the bottom of the first page, and he wants it so that in case they cease publication that you are bound to take all or none of the books left on hand at the prices fixed, and not such as you may desire, as I have it. Otherwise, they left the contract untouched. You know better than I whether this is a serious change--I do not suppose so. I suppose you would take all if you take any. If the change is satisfactory to you, kindly sign the enclosed in duplicate and return to me and I will attend to getting them signed down here and getting the other paper and get rid of this annoying matter.

Yours very sincerely

Selden Bacon

Encl: