Miss Marguerite Holden,
American Optical Company,
Southbridge, Mass.

My dear Miss Holden:

Did you ever get an acknowledgment of your very full and interesting letter of January 31st? I left New York soon after the middle of January and have been away ever since, and have just discovered that my mail at Industrial Management was not being carefully taken care of. I feared that your letter might not have been acknowledged. If not, please know that I appreciate thoroughly what you have written me, that I shall certainly find it of use in the work that I hope to do a little later, and that if there are any points on which I want further information, I certainly shall write you.

If at any time you should be in New York, I should be very glad if you would drop me a note at this address.

Very sincerely yours,
