

April 8, 1924

Dear Rutger:

I am just back, but in no shape to consider immediately the material at 71 Broadway. I had the bad taste to fall ill with near-pneumonia in Pawhuska, Okla. The hotel there is just as bad as the name sounds, but the doctor knew his business, and I am finally here, considerably worse for wear. By the first of the week - not earlier - I shall be able to give a day to considering Mr. Site's data. Please explain to him that I am only just back and that I must have a few days to get into shape. Then I will be glad to make an engagement with him.

Faithfully yours,