May 24, 1939

Dear Mrs. Aley:

How kind of you to write me. Of course I remember my visit at Squirrel Lodge with Dr. Barris and John Burroughs. And I also remember a nice girl whose name I have forgotten who helped make things pleasant for me even if I did sleep late in the morning.

I shall be delighted to autograph a copy of "All in the Day's Work" for you if you will send it to this address.

I hope being married for twelve years has made it possible some times to sleep late in the morning. It is a luxury which I enjoy more than I did in the days when I visited Mr. Burroughs, one of the privileges of being eighty one.

Thanking you for your letter, believe me

Very sincerely yours

Mrs. Harry Aley
