Box 1374,
Boston, Mass.,
July 18, 1914.

Dear Miss Tarbell:—

I am sending you under separate cover the photographs, which I trust is what you require. The one showing the screen, which you mentioned, did not come out well. I cannot let you pay for the photographs, but would be glad to have you send me a few copies of the magazine containing your articles. Enclosed is a pamphlet "Suppressed Evidence," which will give you a good idea of the argument against the compulsory adoption of the metric system, and the Boston Herald item attached to it is an account of an interesting incident which shows that the facts are no respecter of persons, carrying conviction to the standpat Cannon as well as to the progressive Dalliver.

I hope you will succeed in developing the impersonal side of the story, pointing out the value of making the truth known, even by those in the inconspicuous walks of life. With kind regards,

Yours faithfully
Sam'l D. Dale.

Digital Image, 2009. The Ida M. Tarbell Collection, 1890-1944, Allegheny College Pelletier Library