Dear Mr. Burton:

Miss Giles tells me that you would like to look over a first chapter which I have ready for my Reflections. It gives a fair idea, I think, of what I am proposing both in style and in matter.

If this interests you sufficiently for you to care to see the outline of the succeeding chapters - five of about fifteen thousand words each - I will send you the outline of them which I have ready.

A Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year to you, dear Mr. Burton.

Faithfully yours
