Abby Hopper Gibbons, 1890-1944, Allegheny College

Abby Hopper Gibbons
V.2 - p. 47

In July, 1863, Mrs. Gibbons was obliged to return to New York from Point Lookout; her house having been gutted by the mob. The family escaped through the scuttle, &c., to Joseph Choates. The reason why the house was attacked was that Horace Greeley was supposed to live there, he being an intimate friend of the family.