Mr. T. A. Burke,
The Coit-Alber Lyceum Bureau,
Chicago, Ill.

Dear Mr Burke:

I have your letter of May 19, saying that the Lyceum bookings for the coming winter will be in the East and that the Managers of the different Bureaus will communicate directly with speakers.

You put me down tentatively, I see, February 19 to March 3, Pittsburgh and Boston and March 5 to March 10 with the Stephenson office. I think it probable that I shall not be able to do any speaking next winter, such are my writing engagements. When must I decide? And should I write directly to the Bureau heads or to you?

Sincerely yours,
