Dear Mr. Hertz:

Forgive my delay in acknowledging the copy of "Lincoln Talks." I have been buried in work that had to be done before a certain date. I am just getting back to attending to my correspondence. I have only taken a look into your book, but enough to know what fun I shall get out of it, as well as useful to my ~~small knowledge of Lincoln~~. It was a fine thing to do and I am sure you have done it well.

I am adding the book to the Lincolniana I am turning over to my old college - Allegheny - Meadville, Pennsylvania, and there it will find, I am sure, young and interested readers, the kind who ought to know about Lincoln.

With renewed thanks for remembering me, believe me

Faithfully yours

Mr. Emanuel Hertz
